AREA OVERVIEW

CITY OVERVIEW

Peru, IN

Grissom Air Museum

PERU, IN

Peru is a city in, and the county seat of, Miami County, Indiana. It is approximately 30 minutes north of Kokomo, IN, and 73 miles north of Indianapolis. It is the most populous community in Miami County. Peru is located along the Wabash River and is part of the Kokomo-Peru Combined Statistical Area. The US 31, US 24 interchange is just northwest of Peru. US 31 travels south through Kokomo and eventually connects to I-465 in Carmel. To the north, US 31 connects to South Bend and travels further north through Michigan. Peru is the largest town or city in Miami County and is the site of the tribal headquarters of the Miami Nation. According to the U.S. Census Bureau, Peru has a total area of 5.14 square miles. The City of Peru had a population of 10,889 as of July 1, 2023.

Peru's central location in North Central Indiana and its proximity to US 24 and US 31 make Peru desirable for employers. According to Hoosiers, by the numbers, nine of 10 of Miami County's top employers were located in Peru. Peru's largest employment sectors included services, wholesale trade, retail trade, and public administration. Peru is now a transportation, industrial, and agricultural trading centre. Its manufactures include electrical and heating equipment, plastics, food, paper, and wood products. Dukes Memorial Hospital boasts State of the Art Technology and highly trained professionals to handle nearly any medical need. Tourism, a thriving global industry, presents abundant opportunities for job growth in communities worldwide. Miami County & Peru, with its strong foundation of tourist attractions, serves as an excellent catalyst for sectoral expansion. The city being strategically positioned due to the realignment of Grissom Air Force Base in 1994, has identified a compelling opportunity in the field of aircraft maintenance and re-manufacturing. Major employers include: Grissom Air Reserve Base, Smithfield Foods, Miami Correctional Facility, Peru Community School Corp and Dukes Memorial Hospital among the top.

Also known as "The Circus Capital of the World," Peru has been the home to seven of the world's major circuses for their winter headquarters, and still boasts an amateur circus performance that brings fans of all ages from all around the world! In 1894, Peru became the first Indiana city to hold a street fair, and this tradition continues to this day with the Circus City Festival. Peru is also home to one of Indiana's largest parades, is the birthplace and burial place of Cole Porter, and has a nonprofit theatre group, the Ole Olsen. There are several interesting museums in the area as well, one of which is dedicated to circuses and also the Grissom Air Museum. The City of Peru is home to the Peru Amateur Youth Circus and the International Circus Hall of Fame.
