

MARYLAND RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY DISCLOSURE AND DISCLAIMER STATEMENT

Property Address: 1-113 Willard St, Baltimore MD 21223

Legal Description: _____

NOTICE TO SELLER AND PURCHASER

Section 10-702 of the Real Property Article, Annotated Code of Maryland, requires the seller of certain residential real property to furnish to the purchaser either (a) a RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY DISCLAIMER STATEMENT stating that the seller is selling the property "as is" and makes no representations or warranties as to the condition of the property or any improvements on the real property, except as otherwise provided in the contract of sale, or in a listing of latent defects; or (b) a RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY DISCLOSURE STATEMENT disclosing defects or other information about the condition of the real property actually known by the seller. Certain transfers of residential property are excluded from this requirement (see the exemptions listed below).

10-702. EXEMPTIONS. The following are specifically excluded from the provisions of §10-702:

1. The initial sale of single family residential real property:
 - A. that has never been occupied; or
 - B. for which a certificate of occupancy has been issued within 1 year before the seller and buyer enter into a contract of sale;
2. A transfer that is exempt from the transfer tax under §13-207 of the Tax-Property Article, except land installment contracts of sales under §13-207(a) (11) of the Tax-Property Article and options to purchase real property under §13-207(a)(12) of the Tax-Property Article;
3. A sale by a lender or an affiliate or subsidiary of a lender that acquired the real property by foreclosure or deed in lieu of foreclosure;
4. A sheriff's sale, tax sale, or sale by foreclosure, partition, or by court appointed trustee;
5. A transfer by a fiduciary in the course of the administration of a decedent's estate, guardianship, conservatorship, or trust;
6. A transfer of single family residential real property to be converted by the buyer into use other than residential use or to be demolished; or
7. A sale of unimproved real property.

Section 10-702 also requires the seller to disclose information about latent defects in the property that the seller has actual knowledge of. The seller must provide this information even if selling the property "as is." "Latent defects" are defined as: Material defects in real property or an improvement to real property that:

- (1) A purchaser would not reasonably be expected to ascertain or observe by a careful visual inspection of the real property; and
- (2) Would pose a direct threat to the health or safety of:
 - (i) the purchaser; or
 - (ii) an occupant of the real property, including a tenant or invitee of the purchaser.

MARYLAND RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

NOTICE TO SELLERS: Complete and sign this statement only if you elect to disclose defects, including latent defects, or other information about the condition of the property actually known by you; otherwise, sign the Residential Property Disclaimer Statement. You may wish to obtain professional advice or inspections of the property; however, you are not required to undertake or provide any independent investigation or inspection of the property in order to make the disclosure set forth below. The disclosure is based on your personal knowledge of the condition of the property at the time of the signing of this statement.

NOTICE TO PURCHASERS: The information provided is the representation of the Sellers and is based upon the actual knowledge of Sellers as of the date noted. Disclosure by the Sellers is not a substitute for an inspection by an independent home inspection company, and you may wish to obtain such an inspection. The information contained in this statement is not a warranty by the Sellers as to the condition of the property of which the Sellers have no knowledge or other conditions of which the Sellers have no actual knowledge.

Date: 08/14/2026☒ Seller Client ☐ Buyer Client Address: 1-113 Willard St, Baltimore MD 21223WHAT IS BRIGHT MLS?

Bright runs the largest, most accurate, up-to-date database of properties for sale and rent in the area, creating an open, transparent market for information about available homes. Most websites and apps get their information from Bright's multiple listing service (MLS). For more information, go to www.brightmls.com/open.

HOW DOES BRIGHT WORK?

Impartial Cooperation Among Agents and Brokers. Bright supports an open, transparent market for property information by requiring subscribers (licensed agents and brokers) to cooperatively share information about all available properties and make them available to subscribers in the area on an impartial basis.

Open, Transparent Access to Information. You and your broker decide on the information, pictures, and price submitted to Bright for your home. Bright checks it for accuracy, enhances it with historical records, and shares it (for free) with 100,000+ brokers/agents and thousands of sites and apps. Bright charges you nothing; subscribers pay a flat subscription fee.

What do I need to know about broker fees?

What your broker may earn, and what you may pay, must be agreed in a contract by the time you (seller/landlord) sign a listing agreement, or you (buyer/tenant) are taken on a home tour. Those amounts are not set by law, trade association, or Bright; they are fully negotiable.

Subscribers must work impartially with their clients and other subscribers, in their client's best interest, regardless of any financial arrangement with another broker, which may not be communicated using Bright's system and must be disclosed in writing to their client.

A buyer/tenant may ask in a purchase offer for a seller/landlord to cover closing costs, including broker fees. If you are a seller/landlord, you may choose to agree to cover a buyer's closing costs or service provider fees (e.g., title, broker or lawyer fees), or provide other concessions.

As the seller/landlord, how will my broker use Bright to market my home?

1: When will your broker allow potential buyers/renters to learn about the property? 08/14/2026 (date)
Subscribers must submit information to Bright about every property with an exclusive listing within two days of allowing any potential buyers (or renters) to learn about the property.

2: How will your broker use Bright? (Initial one applicable option)

2-A. Use Bright to share my home's information with the open market (Internet: Yes)

Bright will share the property's information with other subscribers and popular websites/apps. You and your broker still manage access to the home (use option 2-C if tours/showings/open houses are not yet available when information must be submitted to Bright).

2-B. Use Bright to share my home's information with real estate professionals in Bright's MLS only, and do not publicly market my home on the Internet (Internet: No)

Your broker may select not to have your property's information shared with websites/apps. You and your broker still manage access to the home (use option 2-C if tours/showings/open houses are not yet available when information must be submitted to Bright).

2-C. My home is ready for marketing, but will be ready for showings beginning on ____ / ____ / ____ (date)

The property will be "Coming Soon" in Bright until ready for home tours/showings/open houses, and then "Active" once any of those begin. If option 2-C is selected, also circle one: Internet: Yes / No

2-D. I do not want my home on the open market: Restrict marketing only to my broker's network.

Studies show that homes publicly marketed through Bright's MLS typically sell for significantly more than homes marketed as "off MLS," "off market," "private" or "exclusive." And most homes that start with restricted marketing find a buyer only once marketed through the MLS to the open market. If you want to instruct your broker to restrict marketing, then you must sign Bright's separate Limited Marketing/Office Exclusive form because this limits people's access to information.

Bright subscribers complete this form with each client no later than signing a representation agreement.

If you reconsider any selection, update this form with your broker. Maintain a copy for your records.
