AREA OVERVIEW

ONE CITY DEVELOPMENT

Located just moments from Nashville's bustling urban center, the ONECITY development is a lively and engaging neighborhood hub. Embracing sustainable principles, it offers ample green space and a vibrant community lawn, inviting one to stroll, bike, and immerse themselves in the outdoors, music, and art. This transformative development seamlessly integrates Nashville's healthcare, life sciences, and technology sectors, revitalizing a once-underutilized warehouse district into a thriving and interconnected community. Committed to environmental stewardship, the site design, infrastructure, transportation, and building construction are meticulously crafted to achieve LEED Neighborhood Development certification.

PROXIMITY TO HEALTHCARE

8 CITY Blvd is centrally located within one of the most concentrated healthcare hubs in the southeastern United States.

- Tennessee Orthopedic Alliance, a current tenant, provides on-site MRI and CT scans, hand and physical therapy, and orthopedic urgent care services.
- TriStar Centennial Medical Center, a 741-bed hospital, offers a wide range of medical and surgical specialties, including 24-hour emergency care, behavioral health services, heart and vascular care, imaging, neurosciences, oncology, pediatrics, rehabilitation, sleep disorder treatment, and women's services.
- Ascension Saint Thomas Hospital Midtown is a comprehensive facility with 24/7 emergency care, heart and vascular services, orthopedics, cancer care, maternal and fetal medicine, and breast health services.
- Vanderbilt University Medical Center stands as the largest healthcare institution in the Mid-South region, renowned for its research, teaching, and patient care services.
