Warm Springs Plaza is located in a densely populated area of Las Vegas having more than 375,000 people located within five miles of the property. It also benefits from its location just east of the 215 Beltway, a highly-used entrance to Harry Reid Airport. High traffic counts on Eastern Avenue, which is one of the busiest north/south arterials in the Las Vegas valley.

The center is located in a seasoned area just west of the affluent Green Valley neighborhood. Harry Reid International Airport is one mile to the north, and the 323 acre Sunset Regional Park is directly adjacent to the shopping center.
