PROPERTY OVERVIEW

Region Commercial is pleased to present Route 66 Land (±59.92 acres) in Northampton, Massachusetts, available for sale as a land development opportunity.

The offering consists of two parcels totaling approximately 59.92 acres, located along Route 66. The property features a substantial land area with a predominantly undeveloped setting, offering flexibility for a range of potential development strategies, subject to zoning and municipal approvals.

A conceptual plan has been prepared illustrating a potential residential cluster layout, highlighting one approach to utilize the site while preserving natural features and open space. While no approvals are in place, the plan demonstrates the property's capacity to support thoughtfully designed development within its existing topography and environmental considerations.

Situated in a more rural portion of Northampton, the property benefits from proximity to established residential areas while maintaining a sense of privacy and natural surroundings. The area is characterized by low-density housing, agricultural land, and scenic landscapes, supporting potential residential or other low-impact uses.

Offer instructions: At present, there is no offer deadline for this property and offers will be considered upon receipt.

LOCATION

NORTHAMPTON, MASSACHUSETTS

Home to Smith College and its stunning campus, Northampton has a diverse, inclusive community. More than just the county seat of Hampshire County, Northampton is known as an academic, artistic, musical, and countercultural hub.

Northampton continues to innovate with initiatives including the Main Street road diet, a citywide shared bicycle program, bike path expansion, and zoning and planning supportive of infill and growth in its downtown district, including projects such as 79 King Street.
