PROPERTY OVERVIEW

AMERICAN MEDICAL RESPONSE

American Medical Response, Inc. is a medical transportation company in the United States that provides and manages community-based medical transportation services, including emergency, non-emergency and managed transportation, fixed-wing air ambulance and disaster response.

AMR was founded in 1992 when several regional ambulance providers consolidated into a single company. Envision Healthcare sold AMR to KKR in early 2018. KKR & Co. Inc. (formerly known as Kohlberg Kravis Roberts & Co.) is a global investment firm that manages multiple alternative asset classes, including private equity, energy, infrastructure, real estate, credit, and insurance-related investments. As of 2025, KKR has completed hundreds of private equity investments across its portfolio companies and manages approximately $680+ billion of total assets under management. Fee-paying assets under management were approximately $550+ billion, reflecting continued growth across KKR's global investment platforms.

In March of 2018, AMR became part of Global Medical Response (a KKR portfolio company), the largest medical transportation company in the world. As of 2025, GMR provides emergency medical services, air and ground critical care transport, and related healthcare services across most U.S. states, employing tens of thousands of clinicians and first responders and serving millions of patients annually.
