

200 North St. Clair St

Toledo, OH 43604

Property Overview

The Tower on the Maumee delivers a modern workplace experience that seamlessly combines efficient, high-quality office space with panoramic river and city views, premier amenities, and a truly walkable downtown location.

Formerly the Owens Corning world headquarters, the property benefits from the recently renovated Levis Park, 106 modern market-rate apartments, and an attached 519-space parking garage. The building is centrally positioned near Fifth Third Field, home of the MLB Triple-A Mud Hens, the SeaGate Convention Center, and the Huntington Center, an 8,000-seat arena hosting concerts, sporting events, and major entertainment.

Employees enjoy immediate access to the Maumee River and the convenience of being located at the heart of downtown Toledo, with an array of casual and fine dining options within walking distance. Commuters benefit from being less than one mile from Interstate 75 and approximately 25 minutes from Toledo Express Airport.

Perfectly positioned to support both growing and established companies, Tower on the Maumee offers the convenience, adaptability, and environment today's workforce expects.
