About Cornelius, NC

- Cornelius is part of Mecklenburg County, which is in the Charlotte metropolitan area.
- The town is situated on the shores of Lake Norman, the largest man-made lake in North Carolina, which is a major attraction for boating, fishing, and water sports.
- Cornelius is about 20 miles north of Charlotte, making it a suburban area that enjoys proximity to the city's amenities while maintaining a more relaxed, small-town atmosphere.
- As of the 2020 Census, Cornelius had a population of approximately 30,000 people, making it a moderate-sized town compared to others in the Charlotte area. The population has grown significantly in recent years due to its attractive location and suburban appeal.
- The proximity to Charlotte provides Cornelius residents with access to many job opportunities in finance, technology, healthcare, and other industries.
- Lake Norman tourism, boating, and recreation contribute to the local economy, with restaurants, marinas, and water-related businesses thriving in the area.
- The region is home to many motorsport fans, and Cornelius residents can easily access Charlotte Motor Speedway and other racing events in the greater Charlotte area.
- Cornelius is located along Interstate 77, which connects the town to Charlotte and other cities in the region. Though primarily a cardependent community, there are bus services available through Charlotte Area Transit System (CATS), providing public transportation to and from Charlotte.
