Discover a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to own the Country Wedding Chapel and Event Center, located in Quincy, MI.

Welcome to this rare opportunity to own a charming wedding venue and event center nestled in the heart of a picturesque, serene, rural recreational community. The well maintained building includes 4420 sq. ft. of endless possibilities for your creative ideas and entrepreneurial vision. There is a beautiful chapel, a spacious narthex, an updated kitchen, and a dining/eating area. Features lots of storage, 3 furnaces and 5 bathrooms. All of this on 2+ acres, with ample room for parking. Currently operating as a wedding venue and event center, with potential for expansion into various other uses such as retreats, community events, corporate workshops, office space, retail, etc.

The property is in close proximity to local attractions like lakes for fishing, boating, and water sports, as well as scenic golf courses for golf enthusiasts. Guests can explore quaint antique malls and local cultural attractions, adding to the area's appeal for visitors to the event center. Whether you're looking to expand the existing business or embark on a new venture, this property offers a rare opportunity to own a piece of paradise in a thriving rural community. Don't miss out on this chance to turn your dreams into reality!
