RETAIL MAP

PARADISE, CA

Paradise, California, is a resilient and rebuilding foothill community in Butte County, located just east of Chico in Northern California. Once a quiet town of over 26,000 residents, Paradise is undergoing a steady resurgence following the 2018 Camp Fire, with significant reconstruction, infrastructure investment, and population return driven by local and state initiatives. The community continues to attract new residents, builders, and small businesses drawn to its natural setting, affordable land, and proximity to major regional hubs.

Situated within the Chico–Oroville regional corridor, Paradise benefits from close access to California State Route 99 and Highway 70, linking it to larger employment centers, retail markets, and services throughout Butte County. The town's renewed focus on fire-resilient development, utilities modernization, and housing construction is positioning it for sustainable long-term growth.

STRATEGIC LOCATION & CONNECTIVITY

Paradise offers convenient access to Chico (20 minutes southwest) and Oroville (30 minutes southeast) via Skyway Road and Highway 70. The area connects efficiently to Interstate 5, Sacramento (90 minutes south), and surrounding regional trade networks.

RETAIL RESILIENCE & ACTIVE LEASING

Paradise's retail and service sector is strengthening as the town rebuilds, driven by returning residents and new housing growth. Reopened anchors like Grocery Outlet and Dollar General along Skyway Road are fueling steady consumer traffic, positioning Paradise as a renewed growth market with long-term potential for retailers and developers.

ACTIVE REBUILDING & GROWTH MOMENTUM

More than 2,000 new building permits have been issued since 2019, reflecting robust redevelopment momentum and a growing return of residents. This steady pace of reconstruction continues to drive rising housing demand, infrastructure investment, and renewed commercial activity across Paradise.
