AREA OVERVIEW

Located in Porter County, just 40 miles southeast of Chicago, Portage, Indiana is a dynamic and rapidly growing city serving as a vital hub in Northwest Indiana. With a population of over 37,000, Portage is the third-largest city in the region and a key player in the Chicago metropolitan area's economic ecosystem.

Strategic Commercial Location

Positioned on a .63-acre corner lot, this property benefits from excellent frontage along Central Avenue—a major east-west arterial with traffic counts exceeding 9,000 VPD. Central Avenue is a well-trafficked commercial spine that connects residential neighborhoods, schools, municipal buildings, and shopping destinations, offering continuous exposure for a wide range of commercial uses. The surrounding area features a healthy mix of national retailers, professional offices, restaurants, and civic institutions including: Portage City Hall - Founders Square Park & Amphitheater - Portage Township Schools - Strack & Van Til, Ace Hardware, CVS, and regional banks

Redevelopment Momentum & Infrastructure Investment

Portage's Redevelopment Commission has designated Central Avenue as a key focus area, with recent and ongoing streetscape improvements, utility upgrades, and pedestrian enhancements. Projects include:

- West Central Avenue Reconstruction – A multimillion-dollar roadway project improving traffic flow and walkability
- TIF-supported redevelopment parcels and incentives for mixed-use or commercial expansion
- Promenade at Founders Square – A walkable live/work/play development with new apartments and retail space a few blocks away
- These investments are rapidly transforming Central Avenue into a modern, connected business district with long-term upside for investors and developers.

Regional Connectivity

Portage offers seamless access to major transportation corridors:

- I-94 (2 miles north) and Indiana Toll Road/I-80/90
- U.S. Highway 6 and State Road 149
- Port of Indiana and South Shore Line commuter rail
- 50 minutes to downtown Chicago
