1889 | roundhouse for the Colorado Midland Railroad (source: History Colorado)

REMARKABLE RENOVATION | 1889 to 2026

Formerly, this property's origins began in 1889 when it was first built as a roundhouse for the Colorado Midland Railroad. Over many decades, it was converted into the well-known Van Briggles Art Pottery in 1955 having had over 55 successful years before moving. This opened up the ROUNDHOUSE to what currently is an upscale retail center that has been transformed into a popular location with extremely high visibility and easy access into this unique center.

Two spaces are now available, one a two-floor 2,213 sf retail space unit 125, formerly a food-based enterprise and unit 150, a 2,338 sf restaurant located at a busy lighted intersection of Midland Expy (US 24, main road leading to the historic Manitou Springs) and South 21st Street. This center boasts high daily traffic counts in both directions, easy access to and from center, and plenty of onsite parking. Come join the great mix of Dutch Brothers, Optum Medical and Colorado Mountain Brewery. Please contact us for more detailed information.
