ABOUT HUDSON ATLANTIC

Hudson Atlantic Realty Advisors was founded by Adam Zweibel to provide real estate brokerage services to investors, developers, property owners and tenants of investment property. Our guiding principle is to create a successful outcome for our clients through a collaborative 'whole of company' synergy than the industry standard of operating across multiple silos which compete against one another within an organization. Here is why we are different:

CUTTING EDGE ANALYTICS

Advanced Market Analysis and Valuation are in our DNA. Our managing broker, Adam Zweibel, is widely recognized for having pioneered innovative analytics that made him the go-to person for investors, property owners and developers. We will put those skills to work for you in underwriting your next deal.

PRECISION MARKETING

Targeting a marketing plan for investment property to a precise audience pays dividends. Different from the scattershot approach of indiscriminately blasting an offering far and wide, our marketing plan begins with selectively engaging the right investors based upon their criteria and deal history to control exposure and maximize results.

TEAMS NOT SILOS

We believe that working together as an integrated team serves our clients best. We reject the practice of pocketing clients and properties to keep a larger slice of a deal in favor of unbound sharing and collaboration between our professionals. This 'Whole of Company' approach extends our reach and drives success for Our Clients, Our Professionals and Our Company.

PROVEN RESULTS

You only get to sell your property once, so results matter. In the end, our success is measured by the ability to meet our clients' expectations .... for every deal. Let's have a conversation about how we can engage our entire company on your next transaction.
