LOCATION

HIGH-TRAFFIC OUTPARCEL South Pleasant Valley Road | Winchester, VA

For over a decade, Winchester has consistently ranked in the top 20% of Virginia localities for new capital investment and job growth. The area has been recognized nationally by Forbes as one of the "Best Small Places for Business & Careers" and named one of Site Selection magazine's "Top 10 Tier-3 Metro Areas." These accolades reflect the region's thriving, diversified economy, which is powered by industries ranging from manufacturing, logistics, and finance to technology, healthcare, and startups. Winchester's consistent rise in new housing developments, medical facilities, and educational institutions further bolsters the consumer base that retailers depend on.

Recent years have brought major corporate investments and expansions, particularly in distribution and manufacturing, with companies attracted by the region's skilled workforce and logistical advantages. This economic vitality fuels consumer spending, population growth, and demand for retail services.

Location is everything in real estate, and Winchester delivers. Situated just 80 miles west of Washington, D.C., the area sits at the crossroads of I-81 and I-66, with access to CSX rail, Winchester & Western rail lines, and three major international airports — making it a logistical sweet spot for retail distribution and supply chains.

Winchester's strong labor force extends across a ten-county region in Virginia, Maryland, and West Virginia, encompassing over 360,000 workers. With 91% holding a high school diploma and 41% having an associate's degree or higher, the area boasts an educated and versatile talent pool.

Winchester presents an exceptional opportunity for investing in commercial real estate. This picturesque region isn't just a magnet for tourists and residents — it's a growing economic hub that offers strategic advantages for both immediate value and long-term potential.
