DEVELOPMENT FLEXIBILITY

The City of Everett supports a range of residential and mixed-use development through its comprehensive planning framework, encouraging higher-density housing and transit-oriented development near employment centers and commercial corridors. Ongoing zoning initiatives and redevelopment areas throughout the city create opportunities for multifamily, mixed-use, and infill development.

STRONG LOCAL DEMOGRAPHICS

- Population: ~115,000 residents, making Everett the largest city in Snohomish County and a major employment center in the North Puget Sound region.
- Regional Reach: Over 750,000 residents in Snohomish County and millions throughout the greater Seattle metropolitan area.
- Median Household Income: Approximately $80K+ with a diverse workforce supported by aerospace, healthcare, government, and logistics industries.
- Median Age: ~38 years, reflecting a balanced mix of working professionals, families, and long-term residents.

MARKET FUNDAMENTALS

Everett serves as the economic hub of Snohomish County, anchored by globally recognized aerospace manufacturing and major military and maritime operations.

Boeing maintains its largest manufacturing complex in the world in Everett, employing tens of thousands across the region and supporting a vast aerospace supply chain.

Additionally, Naval Station Everett — the U.S. Navy's primary installation in the Pacific Northwest — provides significant employment and economic stability.

These major employment drivers, combined with population growth across Snohomish County, continue to support strong demand for housing, retail, and neighborhood services.

PRIME LOCATION AMENITIES

- Community & Lifestyle: Everett offers direct waterfront access, vibrant arts and entertainment, and proximity to outdoor recreation across Puget Sound and the Cascade Mountains.
- Waterfront Redevelopment: The transformative Port of Everett Waterfront Place development is creating a dynamic mixed-use district with residential, retail, marina, and public spaces along the waterfront.
- Transportation Access: Convenient regional connectivity via Interstate 5, commuter rail service, regional transit routes, and ferry connections to Whidbey Island.

NEIGHBORHOOD DEMOGRAPHICS

Everett's population continues to benefit from regional migration and job growth throughout the Puget Sound.

The city's diverse housing base, strong employment drivers, and ongoing redevelopment projects position Everett as one of the key growth markets in the North Puget Sound region.

EVERETT OVERVIEW

Everett, the largest city in Snohomish County with over 110,000 residents, is located 25 miles north of Seattle between Port Gardner Bay and the Snohomish River. North Everett's historic downtown features a vibrant arts and culture scene, dining, pubs, and the Angel of the Winds Arena. The city hosts year-round family-friendly festivals and events.

Known for its strong education system, Everett is also home to Paine Field Airport, which offers 24 daily flights along the West Coast. The city's Port Gardner waterfront includes the Naval Station and Port of Everett, while Northwest Everett houses advanced healthcare facilities like Providence Regional Medical Center and a Seattle Children's Hospital branch.

Everett is surrounded by natural beauty, providing easy access to the Cascade and Olympic mountain ranges, as well as Puget Sound, making it a haven for outdoor enthusiasts. The city operates under a mayor-council government, with 1,200 employees providing a full range of municipal services, including police, fire, libraries, and parks.

BOEING'S EVERETT FACILITY

Boeing's Everett facility is the world's largest manufacturing building by volume, where the iconic 747, 767, 777, and 787 airplanes are produced. The site employs over 30,000 people, making it a critical hub for aerospace innovation and production.

EVERETT MARINA

The Everett Marina is the largest public marina on the West Coast, offering 2,300 slips. The Port of Everett provides a wide range of amenities, including guest moorage, boatyard services, haul-out facilities, restaurants, sailing associations, Jetty Island information, and yacht clubs.

CITY OF EVERETT

Everett is home to a variety of family-friendly attractions, including Boeing's Future of Flight Factory, the Schack Art Center, Angel of the Winds Arena, High Trek Adventures, and the Imagine Children's Museum.
