A wide-angle photograph of a large, modern industrial building with a dark, metallic facade. The building features several small, rectangular windows and a large roll-up door. In the foreground, a white pickup truck is parked on a paved lot. To the right of the truck, there are stacks of yellow and blue materials, possibly pallets or containers, near the building's entrance. The sky is clear and blue.

An abstract geometric pattern composed of overlapping diamond shapes and zig-zag lines, rendered in a light gray color. The pattern is dense and layered, creating a sense of depth and movement. It is positioned on the right side of the page, partially overlapping the text area.

LOCATION OVERVIEW

Auburn / Lincoln is one of the region's well known suburban/rural submarkets catering to smaller local tenants. The market is the same size as it was three years ago as nothing has been built or demolished in this period, contributing to a much lower vacancy rate compared to Sacramento market as a whole.

Auburn, CA is the perfect blend of fresh air, suburbs, hiking trails, great schools, night life, and a strong business community.

You can be deep in the foothills on an adventure in the morning and sitting with your friends at a world renowned brewery in the afternoon. Or you can work in the morning and then hit the links or the river for some fun and exercise.

Located at the crossroads of Interstate 80 and Highway 49, Auburn is the most accessible Gold Country town, providing year-round opportunities to stroll, dine and shop in charming Historic Old Town and Downtown, see Gold Rush history along the streets, or wine tasting along the award-winning Placer County Wine Trail.

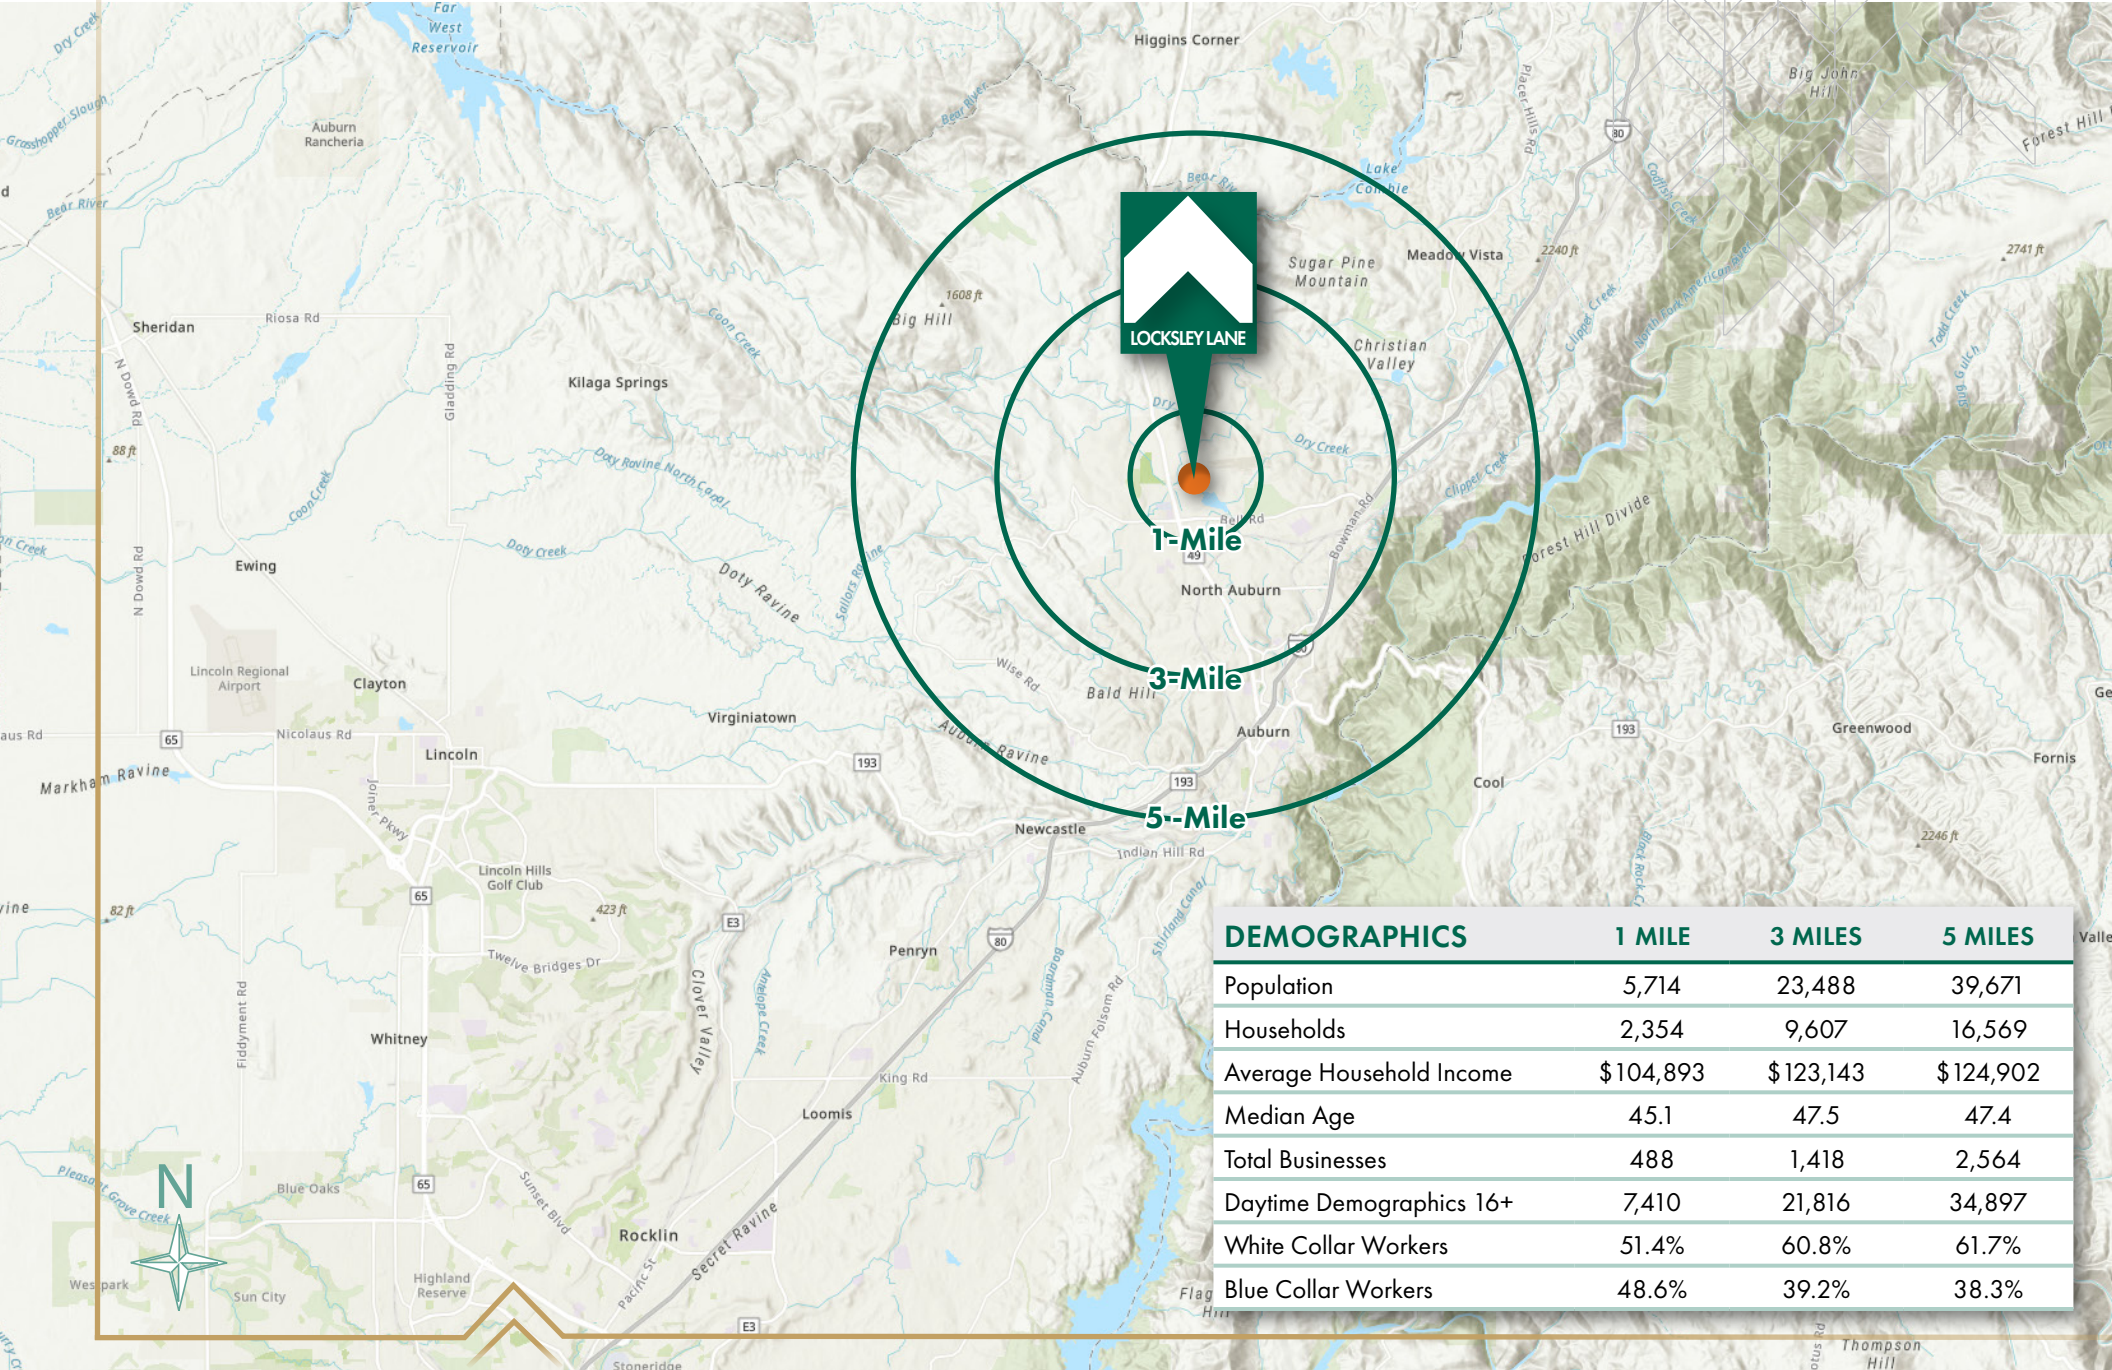

The greater Auburn area consists of four business districts - Old Town, Downtown, Highway 49 corridor and the Auburn Airport Business Park. The Auburn Municipal Airport and business park provides an opportunity for manufacturers, aviation-related industries and other businesses to thrive.

Auburn is the seat of the Placer County government, has high performing schools and affordable housing for families and seniors.
