Freedom Centre

Freedom is a smaller, unincorporated community adjacent to Watsonville. It offers a quieter, more localized market while benefiting from the proximity to Watsonville's larger customer base. The local economy is driven by a mix of families, working professionals, and agricultural workers, with a preference for convenient, affordable, and high value services. The area is part of the larger Santa Cruz County region, providing a blend of small town charm and proximity to significant economic hubs. Anchors include Safeway, Rite Aid, and Starbucks.
