Consumers are educated empty nesters living an active but modest lifestyle. Their focus is land and they are most likely to invest in real estate or a vacation home than stocks. Although retirement beckons, most still work	Ene of the smaller markets, composed of upscale neighborhoods in the urban periphery of metropolitan areas, along the Pacific Coast in California, in Hawaii, and in the Northeast. This family market includes the highest percentage of multiracial populations	A densely populated urban market. The wide-ranging demographic characteristics of residents mirror their passion for social welfare and equal opportunity.

Tapestry Segmentation is a national demographic classification system which summarizes consumers' lifestyle choices, purchasing habits and recreational activities based upon the demographics, socio-economics, consumption trends and built environments of a particular area. These 67 unique segments are classified by 14 LifeMode Groups, based on shared characteristics.
