OFFERING SUMMARY

Norheim & Yost is pleased to present a unique opportunity in the heart of the beautiful Berkeley Hills. 1130 Oxford Street is a  $\pm 1.26$  acre, or  $\pm 54,847$  sq. ft. lot, with frontage on both Oxford and Walnut Streets. The site currently contains two buildings, once housing Oxford Elementary School. The main building, which is rectangular in shape, contains  $\pm 27,124$  sq ft of building spread over three floors, with a footprint of  $\pm 75' \times 150'$ . The second building is circular in shape, containing  $\pm 5,500$  sq ft, with a footprint of 84' in diameter. Originally developed in 1909, the school was then rebuilt in 1965 and then remodeled and modernized in 1998. When functioning as Oxford Elementary, the buildings housed 16 classrooms, a library, offices, restrooms, a multipurpose room with an elevated stage and a commercial kitchen for onsite food service. The buildings are elevator served and contain two interior stairwells. Currently there is 800 amps / 3-phase power serving the property.

DEVELOPMENT OPPORTUNITY

R-1H ZONING HIGHLIGHTS (refer to development study)

- The R-1H zoning district is a Single-Family Residential zone, which requires minimum 5,000 sq. ft. per lot. Based on the lot size listed above, this would allow for subdivision of the existing lot into 10 new residential lots, 5 facing Oxford St and 5 facing Walnut St.
- New primary residences would be allowed to be up to 3 stories and occupy up to 40% of the lot. One parking space would be required, per primary residence.
- Multifamily uses are not allowed in this district. However, a detached ADU would be allowed on each of the 10 lots as well. The ADUs could be up to 1000 sqft in gross floor area and up to 20' tall, allowing for two stories.
- Non-residential uses are allowed with the approval of Use Permit with Public Hearing, a Zoning Certificate or an Administrative Use Permit.

NEIGHBORHOOD INFORMATION

1130 OXFORD STREET presents a rare opportunity to own a substantial piece of land in one of the city's most desirable residential enclaves. This serene stretch of Oxford Street is known for its quiet, tree-lined ambiance, historic homes, and commanding views of the San Francisco Bay.

OXFORD STREET continues one mile south to The University of California at Berkeley and Downtown Berkeley with businesses shops and restaurants. Three unique shopping and dining areas are walkable distance. SOLANO AVENUE is two miles of neighborhood restaurants and businesses and hosts the annual Solano Stroll festival. HOPKINS STREET has a lively beer garden, specialty food shops including Monterey Market grocery, and garden nurseries. NORTH SHATTUCK is home to world-class dining including the seminal Chez Panisse, the original Peet's Coffee location, and upscale markets including Cheese Board Collective. NATURE LOVERS will appreciate nearby Live Oak Park, the Berkeley Rose Garden, rock climbing at Indian Rock, and hiking trails through Tilden Park, all just minutes away.

The location offers a true urban-suburban balance, with tranquil residential streets yet easy access to public transit. It has top-rated public schools with dedicated teachers and strong funding, and many cultural landmarks. Whether envisioning a private estate, multiple single-family lot development, or an owner/user site, this is an unmatched canvas for your vision.
