Professional Background

I began my career as an investment banking professional at Credit Suisse, working across multiple areas where I spent five years analyzing markets, structuring deals, and advising stakeholders on financial strategies. I then transitioned into commercial credit underwriting at HomeTrust Bank, gaining valuable experience in assessing risk, underwriting loans, and helping businesses secure the financing they need to grow. In 2025, I joined NAI Beverly-Hanks, bringing my financial expertise and local market knowledge to the world of commercial real estate.

With a strong background in financial analysis, risk assessment, and deal structuring, I provide clients with informed guidance on commercial real estate investments, acquisitions, and development opportunities. Whether you're looking to buy, sell, lease, or invest, I am committed to delivering market insights and tailored solutions that align with your business objectives.

Born and raised in Asheville, I have a deep appreciation for our city's evolving commercial landscape. When I'm not working, I enjoy hiking, fishing, and traveling, as well as spending time with my wife and our dog, Gimli. I'm also actively involved in my community through the Oakley Neighborhood Association, working to support local initiatives and neighborhood development. Let's explore the right opportunities for your business together!
