1885

The first three stories of the Flynn Building were constructed.

1906

The top three stories of the Flynn Building were added.

1948

Edna Griffin and others stage a sit-in protest at the Katz Drug Store, located in the building, for violating the civil rights of Griffin and her friends.

1949

The Iowa Supreme Court decides in favor of Griffin, resulting in the desegregation of Katz Drug Store.

1998

The building is officially renamed the “Edna Griffin Building”.

2020

Renovations of the Edna Griffin Building are completed, while preserving its historical importance.
