Location

10215 Santa Monica is located in Century City—the premier office market in Los Angeles and surrounded by the most desirable neighborhoods in the city including Beverly Hills, Westwood and Culver City. JP Morgan Chase, CAA, Ares, Latham & Watkins, UBS and many more all have major long term facilities in Century City. In addition, the immediate area is flush with walkable amenities including the Westfield Century City across the street, Clementine a few steps away and the LA Country Club just a stones throw away.

Century City is recognized as one of the most accessible markets in Los Angeles with its location in the Center of the Westside between Beverly Hills, Westwood, West LA and Culver City. Century City also benefits from being only 2 miles to the 405 freeway and will feature a new subway stop on the Purple Line Extension.

Own Vs. Lease with Great Financing Options

10215 Santa Monica Blvd. is a unique opportunity for an owner-user to purchase a rare bite-size building with the flexibility to occupy as a single user or multi-tenant. Ownership provides long term stability vs. Century City's high rental rates. Interest rates are improving and an owner-user could take advantage of incredibly low down payment programs through the SBA. The opportunity to own your own property instead of renting makes considerable financial sense.
