Location Info and Demos

Located immediately north of Tampa International Airport in Hillsborough County, the Airport industrial submarket is approximately 16 square miles encompassing over 12.8 million square feet of industrial space. It's proximity to Tampa International Airport, access to regional highways, and centralized location within Tampa allows for optimal accessibility to both employees and customers.

The submarket has also boasted some of the lowest industrial vacancy rates across Tampa Bay, currently under 3% due to its desirability. This has been a product of large barriers to entry for both developers and tenants, as a lack of feasible land sites and existing big blocks of space put constraints on each. Rare opportunities, such as 5820 W Linebaugh Ave, can accommodate growing or new to market firms who want to be in one of the most desirable submarkets across Tampa Bay
