PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Travis Taylor is a Managing Director at SVN | Traditions, holding the CCIM Designation and also the MAI Designation through the Appraisal Institute. With over two decades in commercial real estate, he has built a career distinguished by deep market expertise, strategic vision, and an unwavering commitment to guiding clients toward achieving their goals. He began his career as a commercial appraiser. Travis opened his own valuation firm, which was acquired by a national firm in 2017.

Travis left the appraisal profession to open and co-own SVN | Traditions, bringing his analytical and valuation experience to the deal side. Travis brings a highly unique skill set to the table, with the ability to understand one of the most important aspects of any deal...value! He has worked on hundreds of assignments across all property types, from small commercial to institutional investment grade properties.

Travis has focused much of his time advising clients, not only from a buying and selling perspective, but also in a consulting capacity. When a sale may not be the right course of action for a certain client at a given time, he's able to help them maximize value by improving net revenues, so that they are strategically positioned to realize the highest possible outcome when the client decides it is time. On the other side of the deal, buyer-clients also rely heavily on his underwriting abilities, so that their eyes are wide open. He finds tremendous satisfaction in knowing he's earned the trust of his clients with his ability to quickly, carefully and accurately size a deal, measure risk and understand the nuances that drive pricing. His buyers have a competitive advantage to quickly act on a deal, or move on to the next.

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

11-2-2015

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
  - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
  - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
  - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
