Location Summary.

Belltown is the most densely populated neighborhood in Seattle. Located near the city's downtown waterfront, the neighborhood is bound on the north by Denny Way, on the southwest by Elliott Bay, on the southeast by Virginia Street, and on the northeast by 5th Avenue, beyond which lies the Denny Triangle. Formerly a semi-industrial arts district, Belltown has been transformed into a neighborhood of trendy restaurants, boutiques, nightclubs, mixed-use and residential towers. In 2023, downtown's residential population continued its upward trajectory, increasing to more than 106,000 residents. Among peer downtowns, Seattle has the second-most residential units currently under construction with thousands more in the development pipeline.

Prominently situated on the corner of 2nd Avenue and Wall Street, the property has incredible visibility with over 100 feet of street frontage on Wall St. and 60 feet of street frontage on 2nd Avenue. It also benefits from being at a signalized intersection with a 2022 average daily traffic count of 8,211 vpd. In addition to its central location, it has a Transit Score of 100, Walk Score of 99, and it's located just 1 mile or less from: Seattle's CBD, Space Needle, South Lake Union, Waterfront and the World renowned Seattle Aquarium!
