Airport48 is a forthcoming warehouse building set to encompass approximately 146,526 square feet. Positioned strategically within Central Phoenix, this industrial facility is situated on one of the last remaining infill land sites in the area. This development offers a distinctive opportunity for industrial stakeholders in search of a central hub that seamlessly connects to the major Phoenix freeway systems.

The site's direct access to Phoenix Sky Harbor International Airport adds a layer of convenience, particularly beneficial for logistics-oriented enterprises operating within or intending to enter the Phoenix market. Anticipated for completion in the third quarter of 2023, the Airport48 project provides a layer of operational efficiency to help foster business growth.
