SOHO

SoHo is more than a neighborhood—it's a global symbol of style, creativity, and urban sophistication. Located in the heart of Lower Manhattan, SoHo (short for South of Houston Street) is renowned for its iconic cast-iron architecture, cobblestone streets, and a curated mix of luxury retail, art, and culture that draws millions of visitors each year.

As a destination, SoHo seamlessly blends heritage and trendsetting energy. Home to flagship stores, contemporary art galleries, award-winning restaurants, and cutting-edge showrooms, the area thrives as both a commercial powerhouse and cultural touchstone. Its pedestrian-friendly layout, proximity to major transit lines, and vibrant residential base create a continuous pulse of activity throughout the day and into the night.

With its distinctive blend of authenticity, prestige, and global appeal, SoHo offers unparalleled opportunities for brand storytelling, experiential retail, and long-term real estate value.

For retailers, creative firms, and investors alike, SoHo represents a rare convergence of legacy, lifestyle, and lasting influence—anchoring one of New York City's most iconic and sought-after destinations.
