Massey Building

Originally built in 1910 as a Renaissance Revival-style hotel, The Massey has been a cornerstone of Bentonville's history, later serving as the city library for over 30 years. Now thoughtfully redeveloped by Blue Crane, this iconic building offers Class A office space on the second and third floors, combining historic charm with modern functionality in a prime downtown location.

The first floor is home to Phat Tire Bike Shop, a staple of Bentonville's cycling scene, and Scotch & Soda, a popular craft cocktail bar. Below, the Lady Slipper speakeasy provides an intimate, upscale escape. Surrounded by Walmart's world headquarters, the Walmart Museum, Crystal Bridges Museum of American Art, and a vibrant mix of restaurants and retail, The Massey offers unparalleled convenience in the heart of the city.

With its historic character, modern amenities, and prime location, The Massey is the perfect setting for businesses looking to thrive in Northwest Arkansas's most dynamic district. Now leasing office space on the 2nd and 3rd floors—claim your place today!

Massey Building

2ND FLOOR

125 W CENTRAL AVE, BENTONVILLE, AR

Blending modern finishes with historic charm, this full-floor office space features 11 private offices, 2 large conference rooms, open work areas, a lounge, kitchen, and bar. Original brickwork and rich wood details preserve The Massey's character, while sleek updates add a contemporary touch.

Two private patios—among the best in downtown Bentonville—offer a unique outdoor retreat. With its prime location and distinctive design, this space is perfect for businesses looking for something special.

Massey Building

3RD FLOOR

125 W CENTRAL AVE, BENTONVILLE, AR

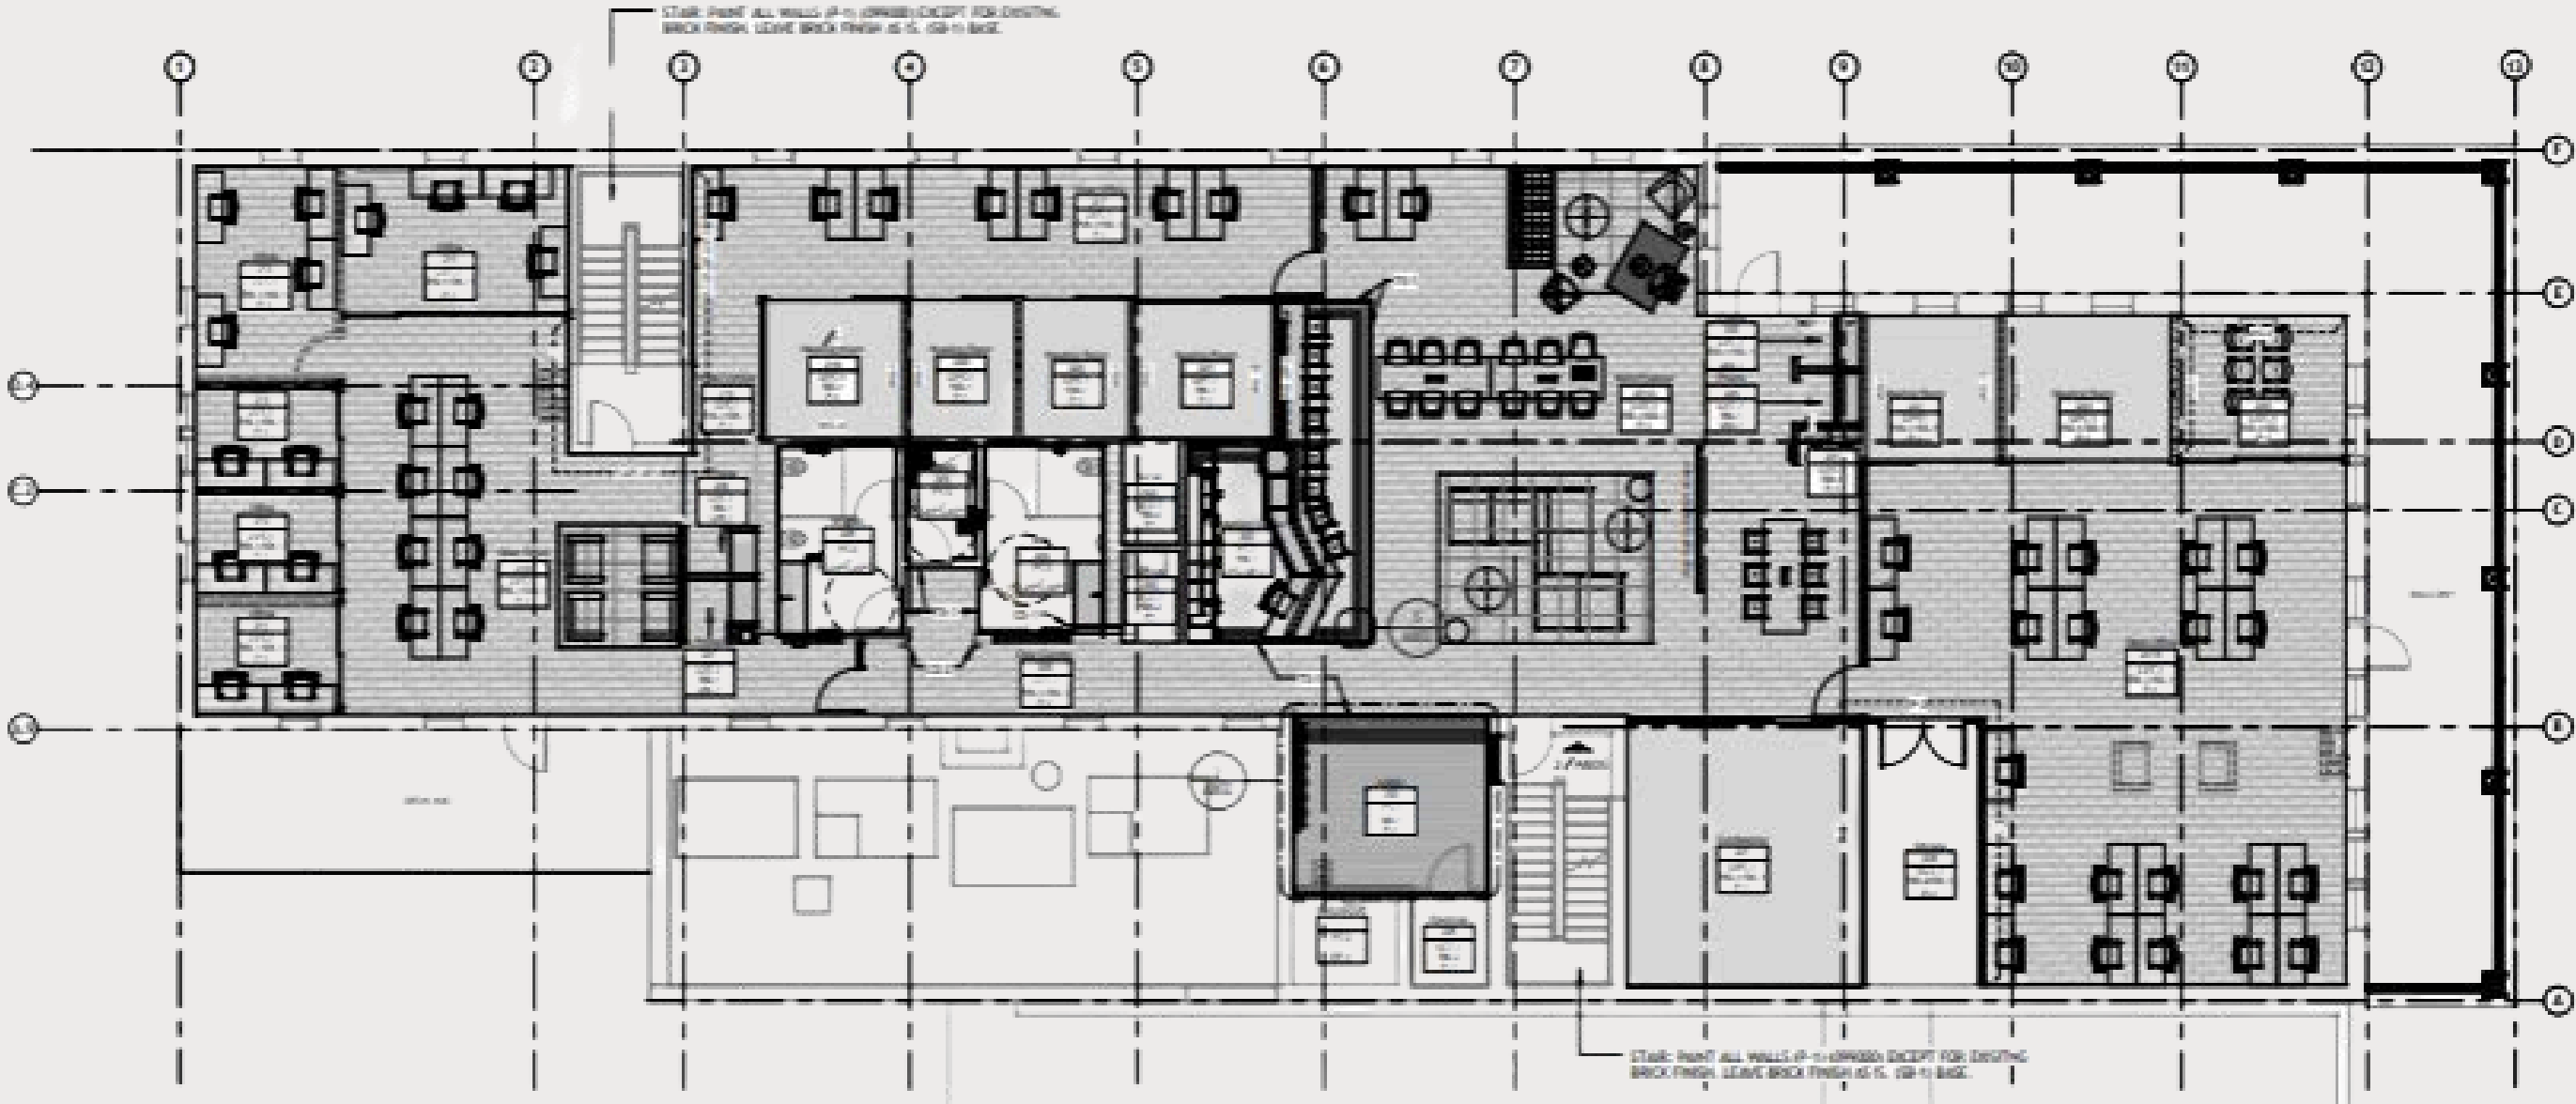

Offering a more private and modern workspace, the third floor of The Massey features 17 private offices, 2 large conference rooms, a reception area, and limited open space, creating an environment that enhances focus and productivity while still providing opportunities for collaboration. While maintaining the building's historic charm, this floor has a sleek, modern feel with contemporary finishes and an efficient layout designed for professional teams. Located in the heart of downtown Bentonville, it provides easy access to the city's best dining, retail, and business hubs.
