+/- 4.84 AC Land in Concord Mills

Property Overview

8383 Old Holland Rd

Available for Sale

Opportunity to acquire a strategically located commercial development site totaling approximately +/- 4.84 AC, with +/- 1.5 AC of usable land, in the Concord/North Charlotte submarket, one of the region's most active and established retail corridors. The property is zoned C-2, allowing a wide range of uses by right, including drive-through concepts, making it well-suited for medical, dental, urgent care, or service-oriented retail users.

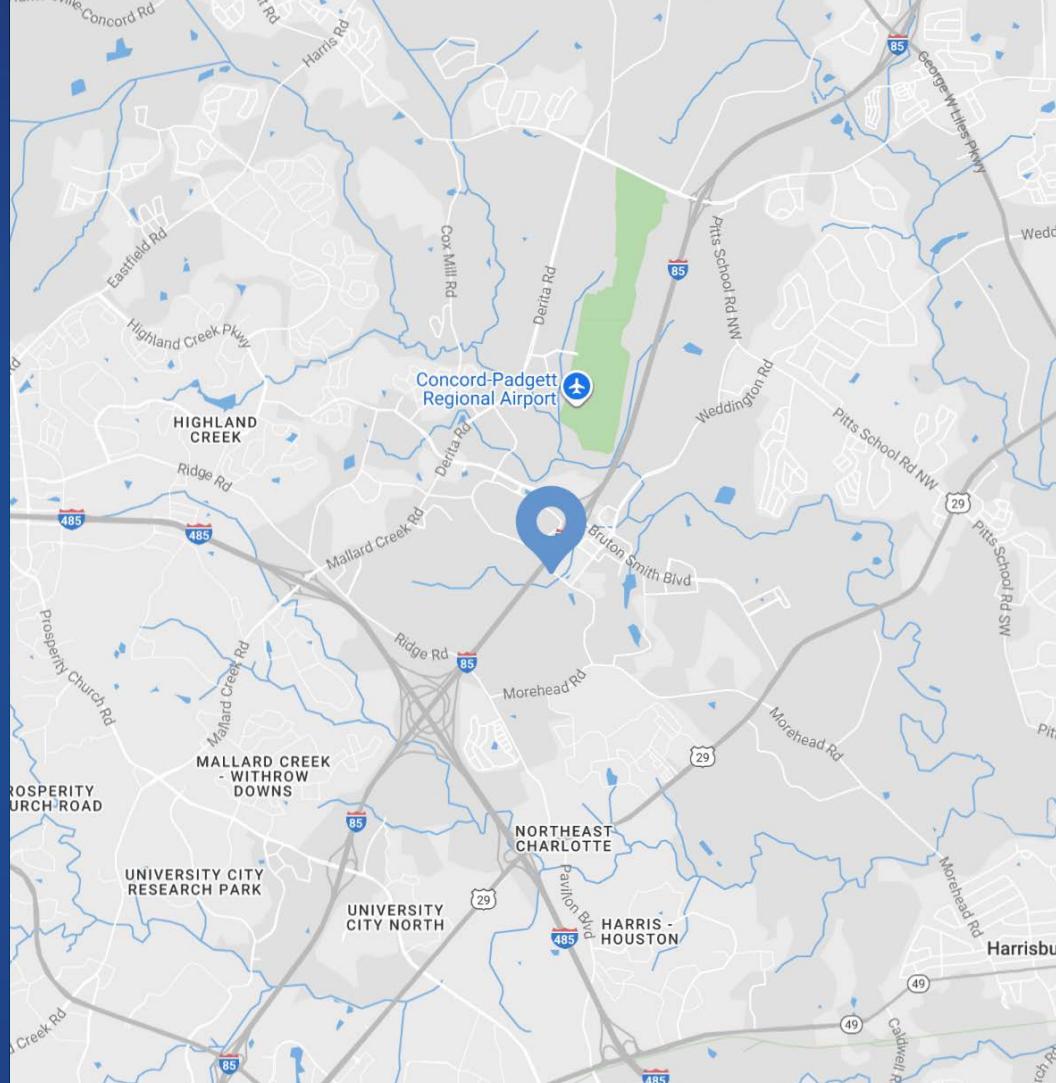

Situated just off Concord Mills Blvd, the site benefits from immediate proximity to Concord Mills Marketplace, one of the Charlotte region's most dominant retail destinations, and is surrounded by national retailers, hotels, and mixed-use development. While positioned behind the primary retail frontage, the location offers a quieter, more functional setting—ideal for medical or service users seeking adjacency to strong retail traffic without the congestion or pricing of front-row parcels.

The property analysis supports development potential of approximately 10,000 SF of retail or medical space, subject to utility availability and site constraints including wetlands.

With continued population growth and strong retail fundamentals in the Concord submarket, the property presents a compelling opportunity for users or developers targeting stable, needs-based demand in a proven commercial environment.
