PROPERTY HISTORY

Situated on the 1600 block of Main Street in Columbia, South Carolina's Central Business District, Berry's on Main has been a key contributor to the evolution of downtown Columbia's commercial landscape.

Built in 1912, the property has housed a variety of businesses, including department stores, administrative offices, and general retailers.

In 1999, Berry's on Main was transformed into a contemporary, mixed-use development, featuring retail and professional office spaces on the ground level, with 20 upscale apartments occupying the second and third floors.
