property description

This .23-acre commercial parcel on Bragg Boulevard offers an exceptional redevelopment opportunity with water and sewer utilities in place. The existing structure on-site is slated for demolition, paving the way for new construction tailored to a variety of commercial uses permitted under CC (Community Commercial) zoning. With its compact size and established infrastructure, the site is well-suited for retail or professional development. Its prominent exposure along Bragg Blvd ensures steady visibility to both local residents and commuters, supported by consistent traffic flow in a well-established corridor. The property's flexible zoning and infrastructure-ready condition streamline the development process for investors and users alike.
