Property Description

This ±1,581 SF standalone office building is situated on a generous 2.1 acre site. The building offers an ideal setting for small business owners seeking a private, professional environment with room to grow.

The property provides a rare combination of functional office space and expansive land, allowing for flexibility, potential outdoor storage, or future expansion.

This strategic Morris County location is one of Northern New Jersey's most established and sought-after business environments.

Location Description

Strategically located along Pine Brook Road, the site benefits from a well-traveled local corridor that serves as a key connector between several of Morris County's primary thoroughfares. The property offers convenient access to Route 202 (known locally as Changebridge Road), Route 287, and Route 23, allowing for efficient travel throughout Northern New Jersey.

Towaco is a desirable section of Montville Township in Morris County and is one of Northern New Jersey's most established and sought-after business environments. The property offers convenient access to major regional roadways, providing connectivity throughout Morris County and to surrounding markets.

The area is characterized by a strong mix of residential communities and local businesses, offering a balance of accessibility and a quieter suburban setting ideal for professional office users.
