AIKEN COUNTY, SC

Originally chartered in 1828, Aiken is a city of historic charm, with a vibrant downtown, and a history of passion for all things equestrian. Located in Aiken County, South Carolina, in the Central Savannah River Area (CSRA) in close proximity to Augusta, GA, Aiken has long been a destination for those horse and golf lovers alike. This coupled with its general charm has resulted in a city with great appeal as a retirement location.

As the county seat of Aiken County, per a 2015 estimate, Aiken has a population of approximately 30,604. Per a 2013 census, the greater county is the home to approximately 164,176 people. Area employers benefit directly from the proximity of Aiken Technical College, Piedmont Technical College, and the University of South Carolina at Aiken. When you consider the abundant workforce from the Aiken-Augusta, SC-GA Metropolitan Statistical area that includes over 575,000 people. Savannah River Site (SRS) is a nuclear site located in close proximity to Aiken that employs more than 10,000 people. With its first reactor having gone critical in 1953, the facility has continued to grow in capacity and in the number of people employed. Bridgestone has two separate plants in Aiken, employing nearly 1,800 people and Kimberly-Clark which employs 1,200, in addition to many smaller industrial operations employing thousands more.

CYBER CITY

U.S. Army Cyber Command (ARCYBER) is the Army headquarters beneath United States Cyber Command. The Army Cyber Command Headquarters located at Fort Gordon operates and defends Army networks and delivers cyberspace effects against adversaries to defend the nation. ARCYBER, led by Fort Gordon, conducts global operations 24/7 with approximately 16,500 Soldiers, civilian employees, and contractors worldwide. The Pentagon's 2013 announcement led to the relocation of the U.S. Army Cyber Command from Fort Meade in Maryland to Fort Gordon in Augusta. Fort Gordon is fast becoming a center for joint forces activities, training, and operations and is a huge employer in east Georgia. With a workforce of 31,155, much of the installation's annual economic impact of nearly $2.4 billion goes directly into area shops, real estate, banks, and other businesses.

The Augusta Region has long been a hotbed for the tech- and cyber-related companies such as Unisys, ADP, and Raytheon. Now, Augusta is home to the US Cyber Command at Fort Gordon and the newly completed Georgia Cyber Center, a $100 million investment and the largest government cybersecurity facility in the United States. Located on the Nathan Deal Campus for Innovation, the center is a unique public/private partnership involving academia, state and federal government, law enforcement, the U.S Army, and the private sector. Other cyber-focused businesses are paying attention and taking advantage of the expanding field by moving their headquarters and establishing branches in the Augusta Region. The $100 million Georgia Cyber Center, the single largest investment in a cybersecurity facility by a state government to date, is a unique public/private partnership involving academia, state and federal government, law enforcement, the U.S. Army and the private sector.

AUGUSTA NATIONAL

Year after year during the first full week of April, golf fans descend on Augusta by the thousands. The annual event marks a boom for the local economy with over 200,000 average attendees. Augusta is known as the golf capital of the universe for good reason, and the love of golf extends well beyond the confines of Augusta National. It attracts politicians, athletes, musicians, Corporate CEOs, and many more which brings some of the world's most powerful people all in the same week to Augusta, GA.

Augusta National Golf Club sometimes referred to as Augusta or the National, is a golf club in Augusta, Georgia, United States. Unlike most private clubs which operate as non-profits, Augusta National is a for-profit corporation, and it does not disclose its income, holdings, membership list, or ticket sales. Founded by Bobby Jones and Clifford Roberts, the course was designed by Jones and Alister MacKenzie[3] and opened for play in 1932. Since 1934, the club has played host to the annual Master's Tournament, one of the four men's major championships in professional golf, and the only major played each year at the same course. It was the top-ranked course in Golf Digest's 2009 list of America's 100 greatest courses and was the number ten-ranked course based on course architecture on Golfweek Magazine's 2011 list of best classic courses in the United States.
