Make this space yours!

Historic Lafayette Town Hall is a truly remarkable property with endless potential. It is situated just north of Elkhorn on 2 acres, allowing easy access to the interstate. The beautiful building has a rich history, having served as the Lafayette Town Hall for over 50 years. Its classic architecture makes it a standout in the area. The property presents an array of possibilities. Whether you envision a commercial enterprise, a residential conversion, or a community-focused endeavor, this property can be rezoned with alternative options with Town approval. For those with a vision, this is an exceptional opportunity to create something truly special. Don't hesitate to contact Rob for further details.
