WELCOME TO LONG BEACH

Discover Long Beach, a vibrant waterfront city with a rich history as a leading harbor on the West Coast. Strategically located between Los Angeles County and Orange County, this bustling hub offers an abundance of amenities and world-class entertainment that attract both residents and tourists.

With ongoing development and a thriving Downtown area, Long Beach is experiencing a renaissance. Thousands of multifamily units are planned for the future, further enhancing the community. As the second largest city in Los Angeles County and the seventh largest in California, Long Beach is home to over 460,000 people residing in 165,000 households.

Situated between the major employment centers of Los Angeles and Orange County, Long Beach is a commuter's paradise. It offers various transportation options, including the Metro Blue Line connecting to Downtown LA and easy access to four interstate freeways: I-405, I-710, I-110, and I-605.

Long Beach's globally renowned trade ports, prestigious university, diverse business market, centralized location, and unmatched local attractions make it one of Southern California's most sought-after and versatile markets. Come and experience the excitement of Long Beach for yourself.
