GENERAL INFORMATION:

After decades of ownership, the seller is retiring and has instructed A.J. Billig Real Estate | Auctioneers and MacKenzie Commercial Real Estate Services to bring 15401 Old Columbia Pike in Burtonsville, Maryland to auction. This flex industrial property was previously operated as a commercial printing house and offers a strong opportunity for value-add improvement or comprehensive redevelopment for a buyer with vision. Situated in the heart of Burtonsville, less than one-half mile west of Columbia Pike (US-29), the property location offers strong exposure and proximity for both business owners and investors. Don't miss your chance to acquire this asset at a price set entirely by the market – bidding starts October 20th.

LOCATION:

15401 Old Columbia Pike sits in Burtonsville in eastern Montgomery County, Maryland, at the crossroads of US Route 29 (Columbia Pike) and MD Route 198 (Old Columbia Pike/Spencerville Road). The location gives the property immediate access to two of the region's busiest commuter corridors, with Route 29 running north-south between Silver Spring/Washington, D.C. and Columbia/Baltimore, and MD 198 connecting east to Laurel and I-95. Just to the south, the Intercounty Connector (ICC/MD 200) provides a high-speed link west to Gaithersburg, I-270, and the I-270 technology corridor, putting downtown D.C., Baltimore and Fort Meade/NSA all within easy reach.

LOCATION (continued):

For a buyer looking to relocate or expand a business, Burtonsville offers proximity to some of the most concentrated federal, defense, and technology employment in the country, backed by a well-educated regional workforce. Economic development support comes from the Montgomery County Economic Development Corporation and the Maryland Department of Commerce, both of which actively target IT, cybersecurity, healthcare, and life sciences companies drawn to the area's location near major research institutions and hospitals. For an investor, the property's flex/warehouse classification — roughly 32,845 square feet with approximately 4,000 square feet of updated office space, a wet sprinkler system, and heavy 3,700-amp three-phase power — offers built-in versatility, appealing to a wide range of potential tenants.

For a buyer considering redevelopment or repositioning, the site benefits from its place within the broader Burtonsville Crossroads Neighborhood Plan, a county-backed effort to revitalize the US 29/MD 198 corridor with mixed-use development, improved pedestrian connectivity, and transit investment — including the Flash bus rapid transit line, Maryland's first BRT system, which now serves Burtonsville's Park & Ride station with direct ramps to US 29. Nearby retail anchors such as Burtonsville Crossing and Burtonsville Town Square, home to Giant Food and Sprouts Farmers Market, add further support to the immediate trade area. Taken together, the fundamentals here — dual highway access, a short run to the ICC and I-95, proximity to federal and technology employment centers, and an active county redevelopment push — support long-term value whether the buyer's plan is to occupy, hold, or reposition the asset. In short, 15401 Old Columbia Pike offers a well-connected flex/industrial property in a Montgomery County submarket with real momentum behind it.

PURCHASING REAL ESTATE AT AUCTION

The following information is provided by A. J. Billig & Co., Auctioneers to assist you in understanding your purchase of a property at public auction. The material in this form is general in nature and does not limit your obligations under the contract of sale that you will be required to sign.

TERMS OF SALE: Your responsibilities as a purchaser have been advertised prior to the day of sale and will be read by the Auctioneer at the time of sale. Additional terms may be announced on the day of sale or may be posted at the sale site. The auctioneer will make important announcements regarding the property and your obligations as a purchaser. Please feel free to ask any questions regarding these terms. Failure to comply with any of the terms of sale may cause you to forfeit your deposit and be responsible for the expenses to resell the property, as well as any deficiency incurred.

CONDITION OF PROPERTY: The property will be sold "AS IS." Unless otherwise announced, the sellers make no representations or warranties about the condition of the property. The sellers will not make any repairs.

DEPOSIT: Your deposit will be credited toward the purchase price. If you do not comply with the "TERMS OF SALE," either published or within the contract of sale, you might lose all or part of your deposit. In addition, if you fail to settle for the property you might be obligated to pay the expenses to resell the property, including any deficiency resulting therefrom. If the "TERMS OF SALE" require you to increase your deposit above the amount specified, the Auctioneer will likely accept your personal or business check for the difference on the day of sale. Otherwise, you can bring, wire or messenger certified funds for the increased deposit within the time stated.

EXPENSES: You may be responsible for the expenses of owning the property as of the date of sale or as of the date of settlement, including taxes, utility costs and insurance. You may be required to pay interest on the amount of the purchase price, less the amount of your deposit, from the date of the sale to the date you settle for the property. We recommend that you obtain a fire insurance binder on the property immediately as of the date of sale. The purchaser will pay all of the settlement expenses, including title fees and recording costs.

SETTLEMENT: The settlement or closing period is specified within the terms of sale. If settlement is based on ratification by a Court, the ratification period is typically forty-five to sixty days, but might take longer. You will be expected to settle for the property within the specified time.

FINANCING: It is the purchaser's responsibility to obtain financing. If you plan to use a mortgage to purchase the property, we recommend that you apply for the loan immediately. If the bank must take longer than the specified time to complete the loan, the sellers may extend settlement for a short period if you can provide proof of a loan commitment. If you do not obtain the financing within the specified time for settlement, you will be in default of your contract of sale.

BIDDING PROCEDURE: At the conclusion of the announcement and question period, the auctioneer will solicit bids for the property. Bids are generally made either orally or by raising a hand. Bidding increments are made in amounts acceptable to the auctioneer, who may set a minimum bidding increment as the sale progresses. Any bid that is merely a nominal or fractional advance may be rejected by the auctioneer if in his judgement it may affect the sale injuriously. If a dispute arises between two or more bidders, the auctioneer shall decide in favor of one of the bidders, or immediately re-offer the property.

NOTE: The information contained herein has been obtained from sources deemed reliable and is believed to be accurate. However, no express or implied warranty is made or may be inferred from any such representation.
