Location Overview

FLATS AT 37TH PLACE

Wheat Ridge is a western suburb of Denver located in Jefferson County, just 4 miles from downtown Denver. Wheat Ridge offers an outstanding quality of life with miles of open space, trails, and parks all nestled in the foothills of the Rocky Mountains.

Ridge at 38 is a commercial district at the heart of Wheat Ridge, located on West 38th Avenue between Sheridan and Wadsworth Boulevards. It is home to an eclectic mix of businesses that welcome visitors by offering a taste of small town life without the drive. The district provides people with an authentic experience steeped in nostalgia; where tradition, and locally created and crafted goods are valued and where new ideas are nourished and cultivated. In total, the project encompasses 592,731 square feet of buildings on 69.3 acres.

LUTHERAN LEGACY

The former site of Lutheran Hospital—now known as the Lutheran Legacy Campus—is in the process of being sold in the fall of 2025 to a Colorado-based development firm. The approximately 100-acre property, located near Wadsworth Boulevard and West 38th Avenue in Wheat Ridge, is set to undergo a major transformation.

Once the sale is finalized, the project will move into the planning and design phase, with continued collaboration among the developer, the City of Wheat Ridge, and community members. The development will follow the Wheat Ridge Master Plan, ensuring alignment with the community's vision.

Initial plans call for a new neighborhood that balances housing, open space, and infrastructure improvements. Low-density residential units will border the site, while higher-density housing and buildings up to five stories—as approved by voters—will be concentrated in the center.

Spanning the size of about 12 city blocks, the development will include more than just new homes. It will feature sidewalks, bike lanes, parks, and other amenities designed to support a vibrant, connected community. The developer says they estimate this property will be home to 1,200 to 1,500 new residential units.

110 Acres Mixed-Use - SCL Health Campus

Just a few miles from 6700 W 37th Place and anchored by a future 26-acre SCL Health campus, Clear Creek Crossing is bringing new restaurants, shopping, apartments, hotels, recreation and interesting public spaces to the City of Wheat Ridge and the Applewood neighborhood. Clear Creek Crossing is a mixed-use planned development with easy access to and from surrounding neighborhoods, whether by I-70 access ramps or via multi-use trails surrounding Clear Creek Crossing.
