With solid infrastructure, a family-friendly environment, and a pro-business local government, West Richland is emerging as a key commercial growth area within the Tri-Cities.

OVERVIEW AND LOCATION DESCRIPTION

Located in one of Washington's fastest-growing regions, the subject property benefits from strong economic ties to the Hanford Site and Pacific Northwest National Laboratory—two major employment drivers that create consistent demand for supporting commercial and industrial businesses.

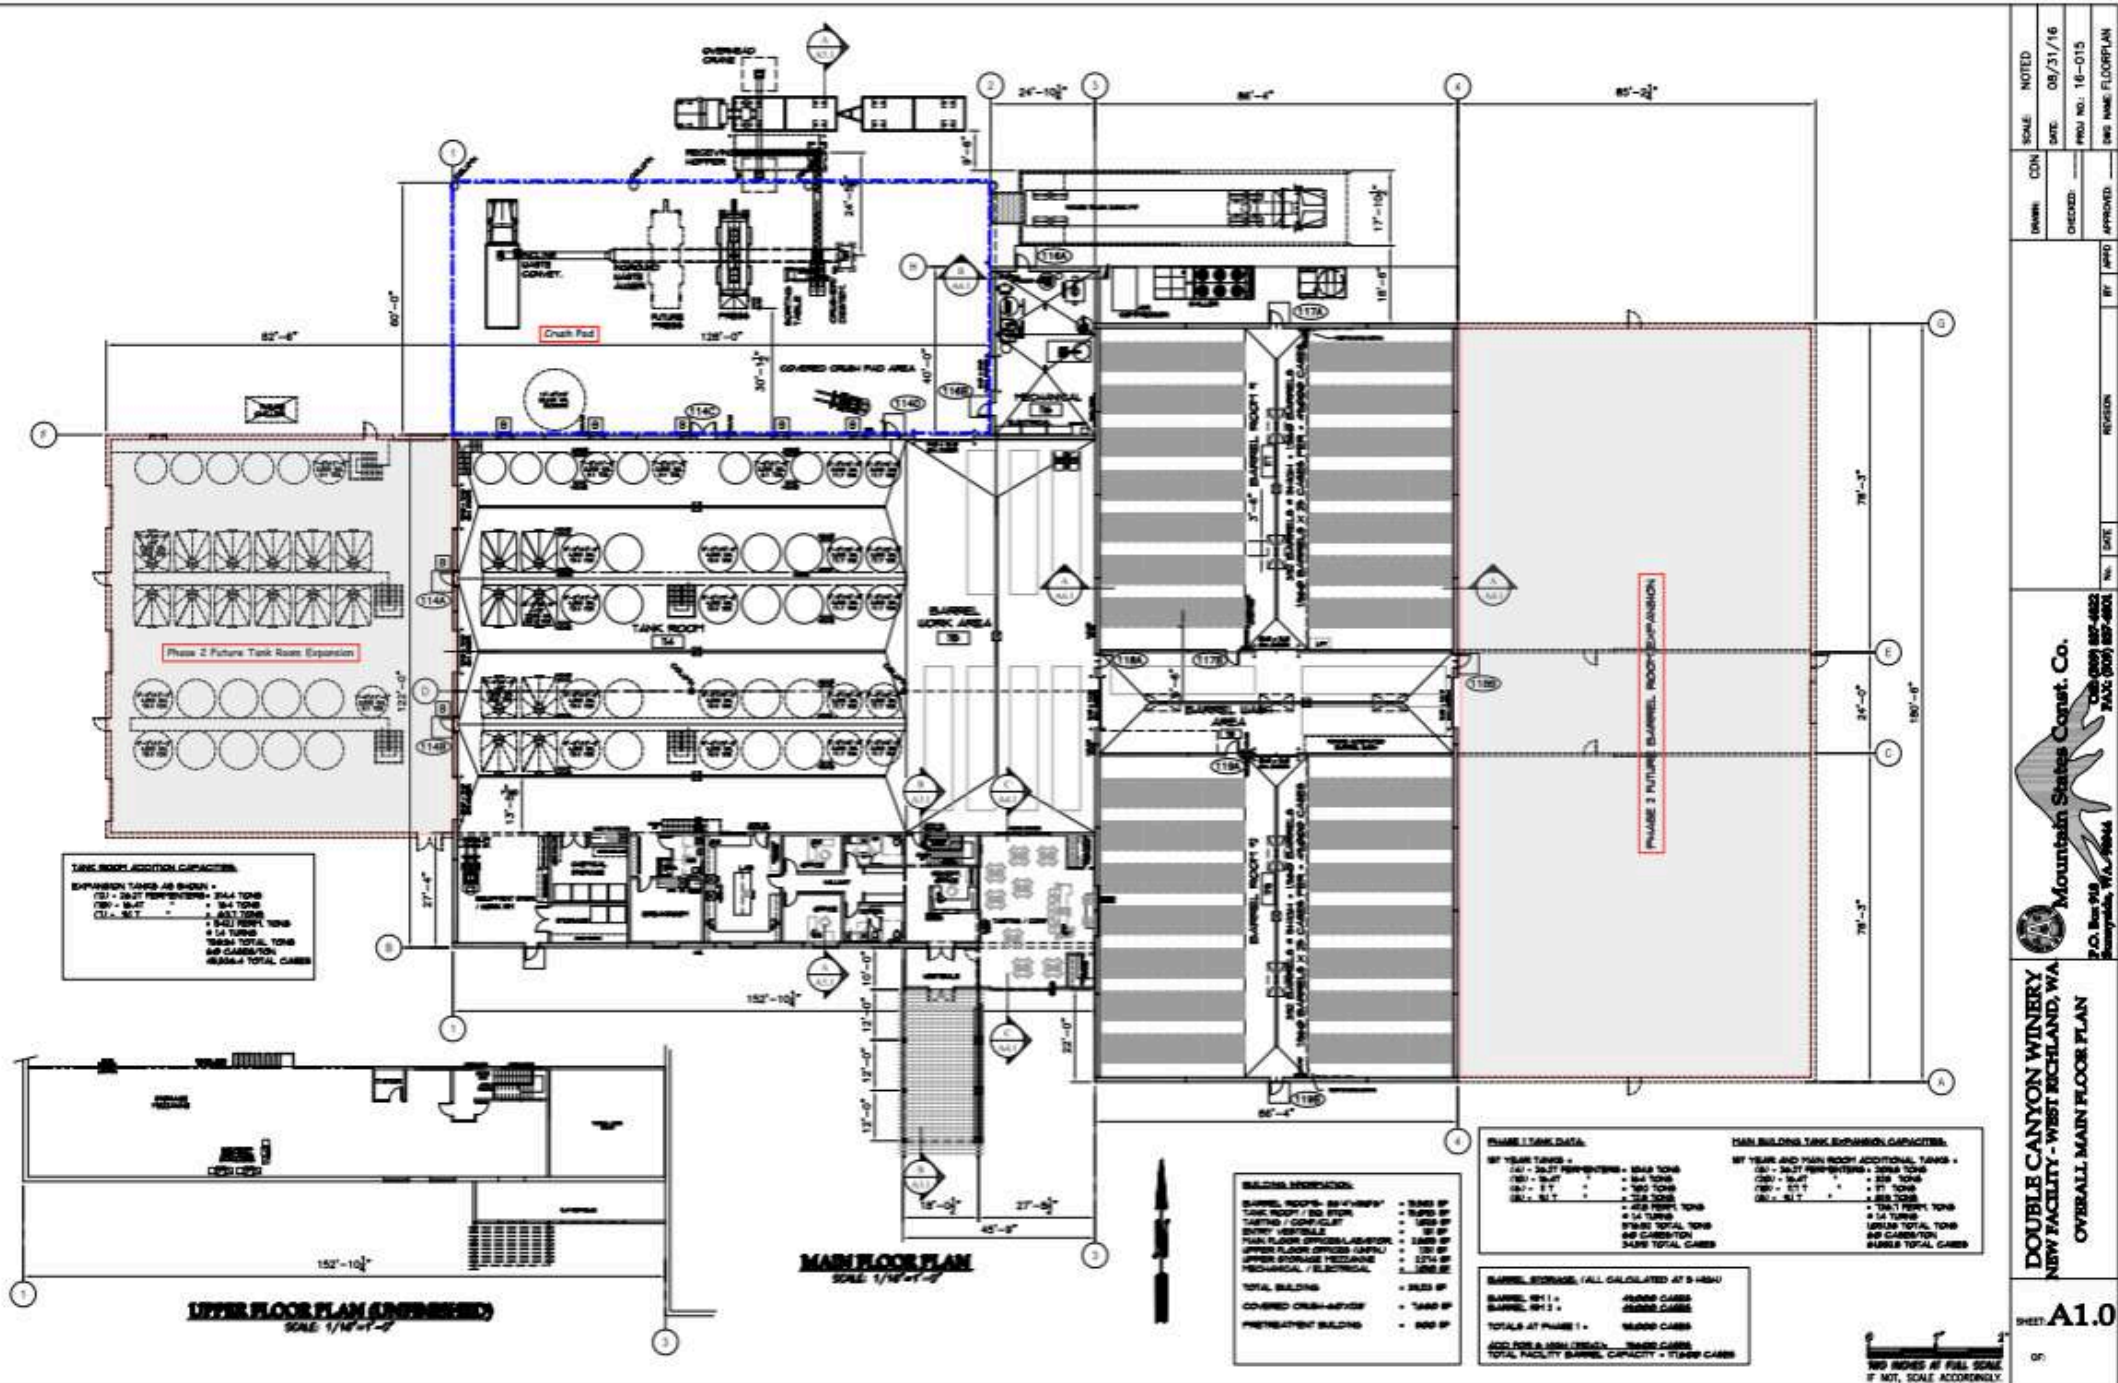

The property is located at the cross street of Keene Road and Van Giesen Street two major arterial routes serving West Richland. The site consists of approximately 5 acres and is currently zoned Commercial and Industrial Light.

The existing building is situated on the 5-acre site, with all utilities in place, and a second adjacent 5-acre lot is available for purchase. The current Floor Area Ratio (FAR), together with the additional available acreage, allows for the potential development of future commercial pad sites fronting Keene Road.

Surrounding properties offer flexible zoning that supports a wide range of business uses, making the area ideal for scalable development. As residential growth in West Richland continues to accelerate, demand for commercial and retail services is expected to increase. Located at 8060 Keene Road, the property is well positioned to capitalize on this momentum, with preliminary discussions already underway with the City of West Richland.

FLOOR PLAN

INVESTMENT HIGHLIGHTS

- Strategic Growth Location – Situated in one of Washington State’s fastest-growing regions, supported by major employment centers including the Hanford Site and Pacific Northwest National Laboratory.
- Strong Residential Expansion – West Richland is experiencing rapid residential growth, with the nearby Lewis & Clark Ranch approved for approximately 3,800 new homes, driving future demand for commercial, retail, and service-oriented uses.
- Prime Access & Visibility – Located on Keene Road between Van Giesen Street and Paradise Way, two major arterial corridors serving West Richland and the greater Tri-Cities area.
- Large, Scalable site – Up to approximately 10 acres total with the acquisition of the adjacent 5-acre lot, providing flexibility for phased development, expansion, or multi-user strategies.
- Flexible Zoning – Commercial and Industrial Light, with surrounding properties offering a range of compatible commercial and industrial uses.
- City is Open to Change of Use.
- Existing Infrastructure in Place – Primary building includes all utilities, reducing upfront development costs and accelerating time to market.
- Development Upside – Favorable Floor Area Ratio (FAR) allows for potential additional commercial pad sites fronting Keene Road.
- Pro-Business Municipality – West Richland offers a supportive local government and has demonstrated commitment to managed commercial and industrial growth.
- Multiple Exit Strategies – Suitable for owner-users, investors, redevelopment, or mixed-use commercial concepts aligned with future population growth.
- Long-Term Market Support – Continued population and business growth in West Richland is expected to drive increased demand for last-mile distribution and industrial services.

INVESTMENT HIGHLIGHTS – ENTERTAINMENT / EXPERIENTIAL USE

- Destination-Scale Facility – Large, well-built structure suitable for indoor entertainment concepts including golf simulators, family entertainment, sports training, event venues, or experiential retail.
- Growing Population Base – Rapid residential growth in West Richland and the nearby Lewis & Clark Ranch development (≈3,800 approved homes) supports sustained demand for entertainment and leisure uses.
- Strong Regional Demographics – Proximity to major employment centers, including the Hanford Site and Pacific Northwest National Laboratory, provides a consistent customer base with discretionary spending power.
- High-Visibility Location – Positioned along Keene Road between Van Giesen Street and Paradise Way, offering excellent access and exposure for destination users.
- Utilities & Infrastructure in Place – Existing building and utilities reduce capital requirements and support faster activation of entertainment concepts.
- Flexible Long-Term Use – Zoning and surrounding land uses support adaptive reuse and repositioning as consumer demand evolves.

INVESTMENT HIGHLIGHTS – DISTRIBUTION / LOGISTICS

- Strategic West Tri-Cities Location – Located in a growing industrial corridor with access to key arterial routes serving West Richland and the greater Tri-Cities market.
- Large, Functional Site – Offers room for truck circulation, yard space, expansion, or multi-tenant configurations.
- Proximity to Major Employment & Industrial Drivers – Near Hanford Site–related activity and supporting industries that generate demand for storage, logistics, and light distribution services explosive growth in housing.
- Zoned for Commercial and Industrial Use –Industrial Light zoning supports warehousing, distribution, and light manufacturing uses.
- Existing Utilities & Improvements – Fully serviced site with an existing building, reducing development timelines and upfront infrastructure costs.
- Development & Expansion Potential – Favorable FAR and land configuration allow for additional building area or pad site development.
