5-Unit Multi-Family Offering

Updated 1897 Denver brick charmer in a premium Congress Park location, this fully leased five-unit property offers stable income today with clear upside ahead. Steeped in history, the building still showcases its original hardwood floors, beautiful moldings, fireplaces, stained glass, and intricate woodwork—paired seamlessly with updated kitchens and bathrooms that feature clean, newer finishes.

The unit mix includes spacious 1-bed and 2-bed layouts, a studio, and a top-floor attic apartment, each with its own character, tall ceilings, and generous natural light. Once a well-known social destination for government officials more than a century ago, the property carries a unique legacy while functioning as a reliable investment today. Heat is provided by a central boiler, utilities are master-metered, and on-site laundry, currently free, can be converted to income. The two-car garage also offers additional revenue potential.

Situated between City Park, Cheesman Park, the Botanic Gardens, and just minutes to Downtown Denver, this is an exceptional investment with strong demand, low vacancy risk, and room to elevate rents and value through thoughtful updates.

Schedule a private tour with your agent today.
