Central Harlem

- Central Harlem has been a cultural and artistic mecca since the 1920's and the birth of the Harlem Renaissance where it gained notoriety for its diverse population and rich heritage. The neighborhood extends from the north end of Central Park at 110th Street to the Harlem River, and from 5th to St. Nicholas Avenues.
- Few neighborhoods balance charm and artistic expression better than Manhattan's Harlem. The tree-lined streets abound with renovated brownstones, iconic restaurants, and popular music venues. Harlem residents are proud of their history, and they stay true to their roots by hosting frequent cultural events that attract large crowds from all over the city.
- Harlem has four different communities that each boasts a unique vibe. Central Harlem, the birthplace of the Harlem Renaissance, offers a lively arts and music scene. South Harlem exhibits robust culture, inclusive of the Apollo Theater and renowned restaurants, Clay and Vinateria. East Harlem, also known as Spanish Harlem, is rich with Puerto Rican history and popular eateries. West Harlem offers quiet, tree-lined streets and picturesque parks.
- Harlem is known for its groundbreaking cultural ۲ renaissance. During the 1920s and 1930s, residents like the poet Langston Hughes, musician Louis Armstrong, and author Zora Neale Hurston used artistic expression to proclaim and celebrate their Black identities. The rich culture that flowed from the neighborhood during that era challenged the world's views on the Black experience and cemented Harlem as a mecca for Black entrepreneurs and artists. Today, this in-demand neighborhood is a lifestyle destination for all races. Residents love that Harlem feels like a tight-knit community in the middle of busy NYC. The neighborhood of Harlem also offers a lower price tag than surrounding areas while boasting a booming real estate market and a swoon-worthy array of activities and amenities.

Lukasz Przybylek Executive Vice President

George Nukho Director of Investment Sale

Michael Nukho President

Michael Nukho, the founder of NuRealty Advisors Inc., was introduced to the real estate industry at an early age by his beloved father and was exposed to various types of investment properties. Today, his company is a New York State, New Jersey and Connecticut Licensed Real Estate Brokerage company. Instilled with the experiences of Michael's father, NuRealty prides itself on extensive market-level knowledge of investment sales and financing. With a passion for the industry, Michael provides a complete set of services to his clients, from analyzing the market to performing extensive financial analyses by concentrating on investment returns and proformas for his clients.

Michael is also affiliated with GEM Management Partners LLC., a company he runs alongside his two brothers, where they manage multi-family rent-stabilized apartment buildings in NY. Immediately before his current role, Michael served as a portfolio analyst for DRA Advisors, a private equity real estate investment company located in Midtown Manhattan. There, he managed a $2 billion office portfolio with properties located throughout the United States. He was accountable for a wide variety of financial modeling and tasks. Michael's first professional real estate position was as an audit manager for Deloitte. There, he focused on the New York market and serviced many large clients, such as The Related Companies, LP. Michael oversaw the AOL Time Warner Center, a $2 billion dollar development project, which has become one of New York City's most high-profile properties.

Michael graduated from Manhattan College in 1999, with a degree in Accounting & CIS. He holds the designation of Certified Property Manager (CPM) from the Institute of Real Estate Management. Michael sits on the Yonkers Chambers of Commerce through GEM Management Partners LLC and also as a BOD Member and Treasurer of the Westchester Owners Association (WOA).

Lukasz Przybylek Executive Vice President

As a NYS and Connecticut Licensed Associate Real Estate Broker, Lukasz brings a lifetime of business experience to his role at NuRealty Advisors, Inc. He has a demonstrated history of working in the real estate industry and is known as a skilled negotiator. Lukasz has extensive experience in all phases of commercial real estate transactions and has presided over numerous multi-million-dollar real estate acquisitions and depositions.

His enthusiasm for commercial real estate sales, investor relations, and investment properties have made him a rising star among the NY & CT real estate community.

Lukasz's path to working in real estate was not conventional but provided a collection of varied experiences that helped him hone the skills needed to excel in the industry. Before his current role, he was an owner of restaurants in White Plains, NY and Yonkers, NY. These endeavors provided him with a hands-on opportunity to learn about lease negotiation, property management, and operations. Being a restaurateur reinforced his knack for making people feel at ease, even during the most complex transactions. To this day, Lukasz says that his chief concern is the satisfaction of his clients, "If they are happy, I'm delighted," he says.

Lukasz was also the owner of Neatwork, Inc., a commercial cleaning and maintenance company. Again, in this role, the entrepreneur was establishing the building blocks for his eventual career in commercial real estate. Neatwork kept him busy learning the ins-andouts of building maintenance, floor plans, and logistics.

A multi-lingual broker that speaks English, Polish, Russian, and Spanish, he serves a diverse clientele.
