OFFERING SUMMARY

The property has undergone significant renovations featuring expansive dining room, large bar area, private event space, and multiple outdoor dining areas.

Located at the Sylvan intersection between the Southwest Hills and Barnes Heights Neighborhood, the property features visibility from Hwy 26 and just minutes from Downtown Portland. It is also close to the Oregon Zoo, Washington Park, Hoyt Arboretum, and the Japanese Garden which are major cultural draws in Portland. It also sits near many office buildings providing a daytime lunch population and nearby Providence St. Vincent hospital.

The standalone building features a large parking lot with additional street parking. There is an existing sign available for enhanced freeway visibility. The improvements to the building allow for creating multiple layouts and sources of revenue. The substantial outdoor areas allow for capturing an increased demand during the warmer's months.

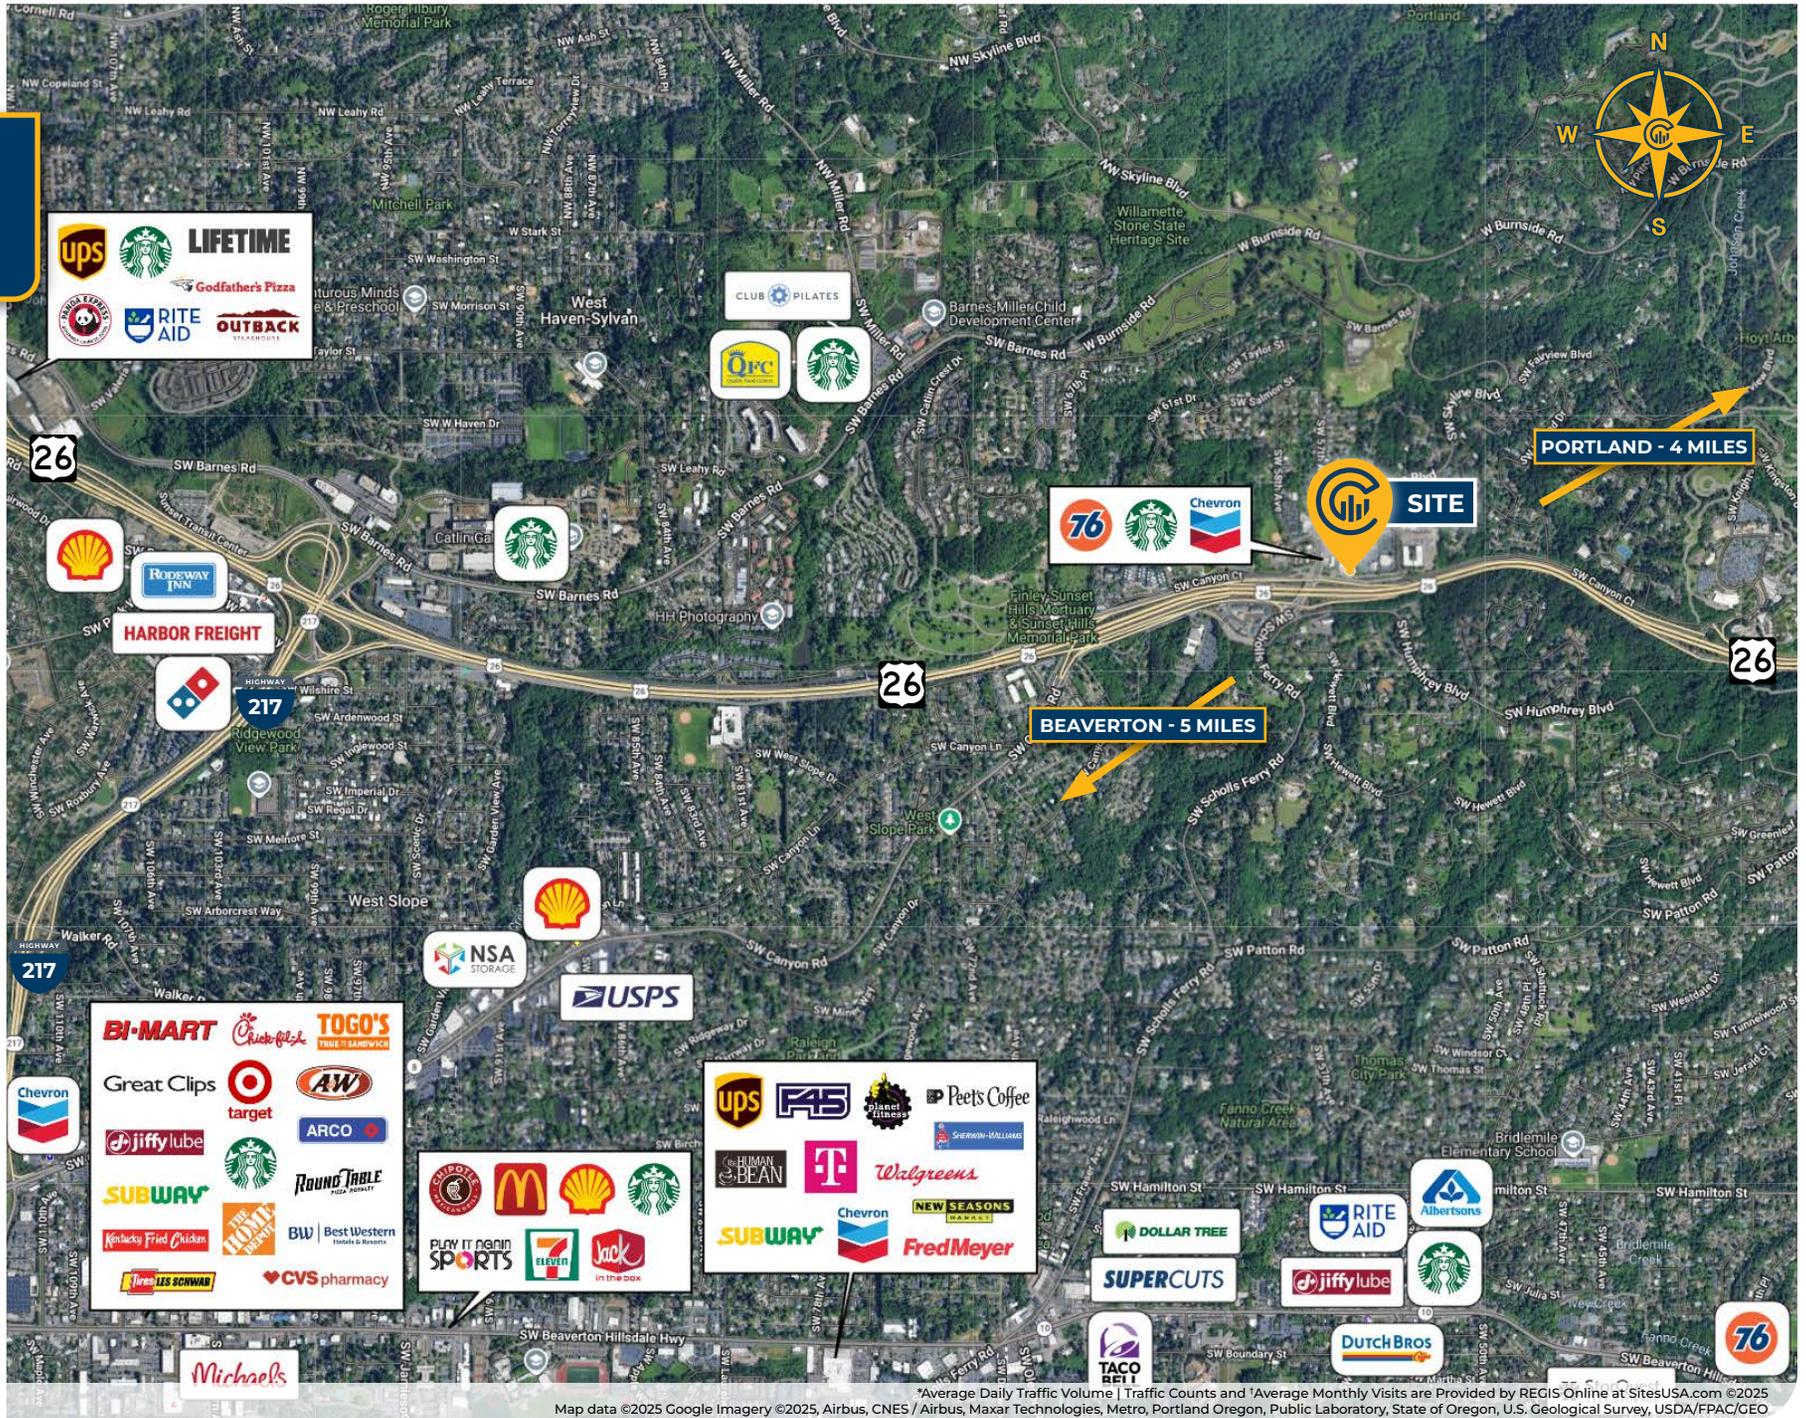

The property is a great option for owner/user restaurant or investor. This is a rare opportunity to operate a full-service restaurant in an underserved area of SW Portland.
