Why 1968 W Tennessee.

Six reasons this stand alone building stands apart on the FSU corridor.

01 Standalone Building on West Tennessee

A freestanding 5,237 SF commercial building on West Tennessee Street (US 90), one of Tallahassee's primary east-west corridors and a major Florida State University gateway.

02 In the FSU College Corridor

Less than a mile from Florida State's main campus and surrounded by the brands students count on — Target, Starbucks, Raising Cane's, CAVA, Wingstop, Publix GreenWise and Whataburger.

03 Versatile Layout, Covered Patio

1,256 SF of versatile interior space plus a distinctive covered outdoor patio — well suited for restaurant, coffee, retail or service-oriented use.

04 24,000+ Within One Mile

More than 24,000 residents live within one mile, with 96,000+ in three miles. Layered with FSU's 45,000-student campus, the trade area is built-in and year-round.

05 Straightforward NNN Lease

Triple-net lease structure with clearly defined operating responsibilities — predictable economics for tenants planning long-term occupancy.

06 High-Visibility Frontage

Strong vehicle and pedestrian traffic on West Tennessee Street — the primary commuter route between downtown Tallahassee and the FSU campus.

THE OPPORTUNITY

A standalone retail building, NNN, in the FSU corridor — surrounded by the brands that already win this market.

WEST TENNESSEE STREET

Tallahassee's gateway to Florida State University – high traffic, dense and young.

Tallahassee's College Corridor.

01

West Tennessee St

One of Tallahassee's primary east-west corridors, carrying heavy daily traffic between downtown Tallahassee and the western edge of the city – direct visibility from the road.

02

Florida State University

The site sits less than a mile from Florida State's main campus, putting it within easy reach of 45,000+ students plus faculty and staff – a year-round, age-23-30 consumer base.

03

Collegetown Co-Tenancy

Established national and regional brands – Target, Starbucks, Raising Cane's, Whataburger, CAVA, Wingstop, Publix GreenWise – have already validated this trade area.
