The Macro View

Infrastructure Growth vs. Tenant Vulnerability

1. The Catalyst: SkyTrain arrival transforms Langley from suburb to connected city center.
2. The Threat: Urbanization drives asset values up, leaving tenants vulnerable to rent spikes.
3. The Shift: The window to secure a position before the market reprices is narrowing.

Risk Mitigation

An Asset, Not a Liability.

Completed Capital Improvements

- ✓ Roof Replacement: Completed
- ✓ Building Envelope: Pre-paid through 2026
- ✓ Paving & Lot: Pre-paid through 2026

Heavy lifting completed. Ownership without the threat of immediate deferred maintenance.

This isn't just your standard office space; it's a strategic commercial asset, perfect for investors looking for rock solid stability and real growth.

The game changer is the location driver. The incoming Langley SkyTrain (the Willowbrook Station) is a catalyst for this property, with this major infrastructure project underway, it is actively driving asset appreciation in the area, making the location incredibly desirable.

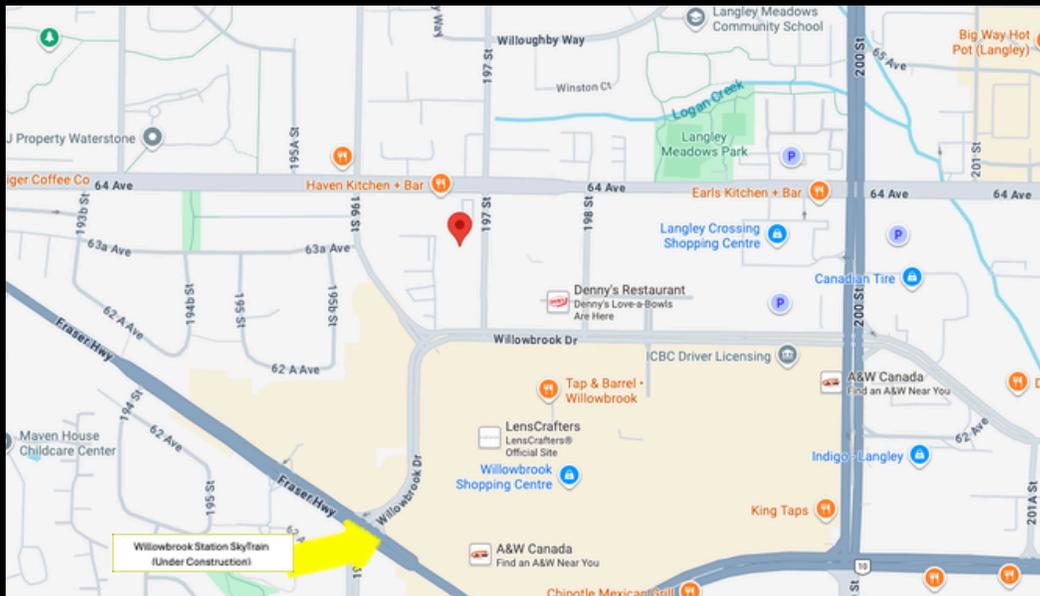

The combo of units listed is unique, with two specific spaces: Unit 202 at 1,800 square feet, and Unit 205 at 685 square feet. They are completely distinct units, separated by a hallway. What does this mean for you? Well, it offers amazing flexibility for an owner-user or investor to perhaps occupy one side while renting out the other.

Finally, let's talk about the asset quality and CapEx. The Willowbrook Professional Centre is a highly prestigious building featuring a gorgeous modern white and charcoal exterior. Crucially, all major capital expenditure items are already taken care of; the roof is fully complete, and both the building's envelope and the blacktop have already been paid for.

To sum it all up, this is a completely future-proofed commercial investment with major renovations fully funded and transit-oriented growth on the horizon.

Your Relationship with a Real Estate Professional

Real estate professionals have a regulatory requirement to present you with this consumer information before providing services to you.

This information explains the different relationships you can have with a real estate professional to buy, sell or lease property. Before you disclose confidential information to a real estate professional regarding a real estate transaction, you should understand what type of business relationship you have with that individual.

BC Financial Services Authority

is the legislated regulatory agency that works to ensure real estate professionals have the skills and knowledge to provide you with a high standard of service. All real estate professionals must follow rules that help protect consumers, like you. We're here to help you understand your rights as a real estate consumer.

Keep this information page for your reference.

You can work with a real estate professional in one of the following ways:

AS A CLIENT

If you are the client of a real estate professional, they work on your behalf. The real estate professional representing you has special legal duties to you, including:

- Loyalty. They will act only in your best interests.
- Full disclosure. They must tell you everything they know that might influence your decision in a transaction.
- Avoid conflicts of interest. They must avoid any situation that would affect their duty to act in your best interests.
- Confidentiality. They must not reveal your private information without your permission, even after your relationship ends. That includes:
  - your reasons for buying, selling or leasing
  - your minimum/maximum price
  - any preferred terms and conditions you may want to include in a contract

When you become a client, you may be asked to sign a written agreement setting out your and the real estate professional's responsibilities.

AS A NON-CLIENT

A real estate professional who is not representing you as a client does not owe you special legal duties:

- No loyalty. They may be representing a client with competing interests to yours in a transaction. They must be loyal to their client, not you.
- No duty of full disclosure. They do not have a duty to give you all relevant information.
- No duty to avoid conflicts. They are not acting in your interests.
- No confidentiality. They must share any information you tell them with their clients in a transaction.

As a non-client, a real estate professional may give you only limited services.

Whenever a real estate professional works with you in a real estate transaction, whether you are their client or not, they have a responsibility to act honestly and with reasonable care and skill.

DEFINITIONS

Personal Information means any identifiable information about you, including your name, address, phone number, financial information and may include information about your property (such as listing and selling price, lease rate, listing term, etc.).

A REALTOR® is a member of a real estate board or association, the British Columbia Real Estate Association (BCREA) and of the Canadian Real Estate Association (CREA). REALTORS® in BC are licensed under the Real Estate Services Act. Brokerage refers to the real estate company where your REALTOR® is licensed (including their employees and staff). The boards are British Columbia real estate boards and associations (or any successors and amalgamations thereof) that are members of BCREA.
