EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Property Overview

10723 Is a store front retail building, located in the old town historic district of El Monte. This is a great opportunity for an owner user looking to open up a retail store in a high volume shopping area. This can also be purchases as a sale leaseback. The seller is willing to lease back the space for a 3 year period.

Location Overview

El Monte, California, is a vibrant and growing city in the heart of San Gabriel Valley—about 12 miles east of downtown Los Angeles—with a population around 105,000 people living within it's boundaries, making it the ninth-largest city in L.A. County. Some of the largest employers include the ElMonte City Elementary School District, ElMonte Union High School District, Toyota-Lexus, McGill Corporation and Asian Pacific Health Care Venture. The city is centrally located near multiple freeways and easy access to surrounding cities, making it a great location for small businesses.
