Discover a historic corner store with spacious living quarters on the second floor, located on picturesque Galveston Island, Texas. The first floor houses a thriving business, offering an excellent blend of residential and commercial opportunities. Conveniently situated near the Gulf of Mexico's beachfront and the charming downtown area. Galveston Island is part of the larger Houston metropolitan area, strategically positioned near the Gulf of Mexico and close to Mexico. It benefits from the city's maritime significance, energy markets, aerospace industry, corporate headquarters, and healthcare systems. The University of Texas Medical Branch (UTMB) in Galveston, a prominent health sciences center established in 1891, also serves the community with its large campus and multiple hospitals. Feel free to contact us with inquiries and to arrange your visit today.
