Joining the team in 2025 as a Brokerage Advisor, Rachel brings a strong foundation in marketing and communications to her client relationships. She began her commercial real estate career in Boston with Marcus & Millichap, where she specialized in retail and earned an early promotion after completing the firm's rigorous training program. A Penn State graduate with a Bachelor's in Public Relations, Rachel has six years of public relations and marketing experience across nonprofit and private sectors, including her role as Director of Marketing & Community Outreach for Creative York. Rachel's entrepreneurial drive led her to found Magical Moments at age 15 and later RachelReh Custom Embroidery, now producing custom hand-stitched designs for regional brands.

Born and raised in York, PA, Rachel is an artist and musician who enjoys journaling, dancing, and spending time in nature. Her enthusiasm, curiosity, and ability to form meaningful connections guide her approach as she helps clients navigate their commercial real estate goals with clarity and care.
