Demographics

Rapid City, the Gateway to the Black Hills, is a thriving regional hub serving more than 470,000 people within a 200-mile radius. The metro area holds the second-lowest unemployment rate in the nation, reflecting a resilient, diverse economy supported by tourism, healthcare, financial call centers, and Ellsworth Air Force Base. Tourism is a key driver, attracting millions of visitors annually to nearby attractions like Mount Rushmore and the Black Hills, providing steady demand for retail, dining, and hospitality businesses with consistent foot traffic. The healthcare sector, anchored by Monument Health, supports a steady demand for office and medical space, while the Ellsworth Air Force Base provides long-term stability.

Rapid City's business-friendly environment and access to a well-educated workforce make it an ideal location for companies looking to expand or relocate. With its strategic location and thriving economy, Rapid City offers businesses the opportunity to tap into a growing market and benefit from long-term success.
