Location. Location.

Laurel Village Shopping Center, nestled along California Street in San Francisco's Laurel Heights neighborhood, serves as a vibrant cornerstone of the local community. Offering a thoughtfully curated mix of independent boutiques and trusted retailers, it provides a convenient and welcoming shopping experience. Favorites include Bryan's Grocery and Cal-Mart Supermarket, both known for their fresh, high-quality produce and specialty items. Sweet Things Bakery, tucked inside Cal-Mart, is a go-to for delightful treats. Local staples like Books Inc., with its cozy children's section, and Standard 5 & 10 Ace, an old-fashioned variety store, add to the village's charm. Dining options range from casual spots like Rigolo and Super Duper to familiar cafes such as Peet's and Starbucks. Laurel Village combines the warmth of a neighborhood center with the convenience of everyday essentials, making it an integral part of the community.
