The Opportunity

INVESTMENT OVERVIEW

The property at 2720 Rockefeller provides a unique opportunity to redevelop a well-located parcel in growing downtown Everett or reposition and reprogram an existing historic structure to meet the evolving demand in the vibrant downtown core.

As an urban infill site, the ±14,810 square foot parcel on the corner of Rockefeller Avenue and California Street is well-positioned for redevelopment. The Mixed Urban (MU) zoning, with a height limit of 12-25 stories, provides for a broad range of programmatic uses. The Metro Everett pedestrian-friendly location benefits from favorable off-street parking requirements (Parking Area A) and a mature and growing mix of downtown amenities, businesses, entertainment, shopping, dining, and a strong multimodal transportation network.

As an alternative to a full site redevelopment, the existing 1921 four story Neo-Georgian style masonry building is a flexible starting position for an adaptive reuse project. At ±46,000 square feet across four above grade floors and a full basement, the legacy YMCA interior improvements could be reconfigured while preserving the Prohibition Era exterior architectural elements. The property is not currently on the Everett Register of Historic Places nor the National Register of Historic Places, however, should a new owner's nomination result in a designation, financial incentives may be available to facilitate a repositioning of what has historically been a community asset.

The Neighborhood

DOWNTOWN EVERETT

Everett, Washington is the largest city north of Seattle and the 7th largest in the state, serving as the economic and cultural hub of Snohomish County. Economic drivers are diversified across a variety of industries, employers, and attractions. Major employment sectors and providers include aerospace (Boeing, Intec, Korry Electronics, Safran, etc.), high technology (Fortive, Intermec, Helion Energy, etc.), healthcare (Providence Regional Medical Center, Kaiser Permanente Medical Center, Everett Clinic), education (Everett Community College, WSU), Naval Station Everett, the Port of Everett, Snohomish County, and the City of Everett. Downtown Everett is a proud and active Main Street Community, supported by the Downtown Everett Association, a new Everett Chamber of Commerce, the Economic Alliance of Snohomish County, and a variety of professional and service organizations dedicated to ensuring a vibrant downtown core.

As the cultural center of Snohomish County, Everett offers premier entertainment and recreation opportunities as the home of the Everett AquaSox (High-A affiliate of the Seattle Mariners) and Everett Silvertips (Western Hockey League), the Angel of the Winds Arena and Edward D. Hansen Conference Center, and is steps away from the Port of Everett – the largest marina on the West Coast (+2,300 boat slips, restaurants, activities, lodging). With more than 40 parks, 69-miles of bike and walking trails, four golf courses, direct access to the Snohomish River and Port Gardner Bay, and international commercial air service (Paine Field), Everett is on track to welcome material growth and tourism.

Access and Transportation

Everett is a transit-oriented, commuter-friendly city and is highly accessible via several major highways, including I-5 State Route 99, State Route 525, State Route 527, and Highway 2 connecting Everett to the greater Pacific Northwest. The city enjoys significant investment in public transit infrastructure, notably a multimodal transit station served by several major providers – Community Transit, Greyhound, Amtrak, Island Transit, Skagit Transit, Sound Transit, and the Sounder Commuter Train – each providing convenient transportation to major employment centers from Everett to Seattle. Sound Transit plans to extend its Link light rail service to Downtown Everett, anticipated to open as early as 2037.

Everett Transit operates a robust system of intracity bus lines with numerous stops throughout Downtown, north Everett, and south Everett, linking the vibrant city center to each corner of the city.

Property Legacy

The YMCA began serving Snohomish County in 1899 when a group of 87 individuals founded the local chapter. Everett Land Co. donated the land on the corner of Rockefeller and California in 1901, establishing a permanent home for the organization. The original wood-framed structure was destroyed by a fire in March of 1920, and was succeeded by the current Neo-Georgian style building in 1921. Characterized by a legacy of strengthening the community through engagement for well over a century, 2720 Rockefeller Avenue enjoys a historical significance in Downtown Everett.

The former YMCA building is not a on the Everett nor the National Registers of Historic Places, though if designation is pursued financial incentives may be available for repositioning efforts.
