Executive Summary

225-231 Bobrick Dr is a $\pm 100,000$ SF multi-tenant industrial asset situated on ± 8.73 acres in Jackson, TN, currently 67% occupied with 33% vacancy providing immediate value-add upside. The property is anchored by Forrestwood Farms (45,820 SF) with 3% annual rent escalations through December 31, 2028, and Garrard & Woodside LLC ($\pm 20,840$ SF) with a lease in place through May 31, 2026 and renewal options, creating a blend of in-place cash flow and near-term rollover opportunity. Constructed in 1990 with 26.3% site coverage, the asset offers functional industrial layout and efficient land utilization. Located along the Interstate 40 corridor in Jackson — a key West Tennessee logistics and manufacturing hub — the property benefits from strong regional connectivity, a growing labor base, and continued demand for cost-effective industrial space, positioning it as a compelling value-add investment opportunity.

Investment Highlights

Property Highlights

- Immediate Lease-Up Upside (33% Vacant): ±33,340 SF is currently available, providing a clear path to NOI growth through stabilization.
- Near-Term Rollover Opportunity: Forrestwood Farms occupies 46% of the property through 2028 with built-in 3% annual rent escalations, until expiration.
- Strong Historical Occupancy: Garrard & Woodside LLC's tenure dates back to 2004. The current term expires May 31, 2026, with two 5-year renewal options providing a path for continued, long-term tenancy.
- Staggered Lease Profile: Two tenants across three suites with differing lease expirations provide income diversification and reduce single-tenant exposure.
- Functional Industrial Asset: Built in 1990 with 26.3% site coverage on ±8.73 acres, the property offers a balanced building-to-land ratio supportive of industrial operations.
- Strategic I-40 Corridor Location: Located in Jackson, TN, this asset sits at the heart of the largest industrial submarket between Nashville and Memphis. By anchoring this critical mid-state corridor, the property offers unparalleled access to a premier east—west transportation artery, serving as a vital hub for distribution across the Southeast and Mid-South.

Local Market Overview

Jackson, TN, this asset sits at the heart of the largest industrial submarket between Nashville and Memphis. By anchoring this critical mid-state corridor, the property offers unparalleled access to a premier east—west transportation artery, serving as a vital hub for manufacturing and distribution across the Southeast and Mid-South. This location supports efficient distribution and supply-chain operations, making it attractive for industrial users seeking cost-effective access to major markets in the Southeast and Mid-South. The city’s centrality within the region helps drive steady population and employment growth, with the broader Jackson Metro Area home to approximately 181,000 residents and anchored by a labor force supported through multiple educational institutions and technical training centers. Within the immediate vicinity of 225-231 Bobrick Dr, surrounding demographics reflect a growing residential and workforce base. This translates to expanding local demand for industrial goods movement, manufacturing support services, and logistics operations. Combined with convenient access to transportation infrastructure and a competitive cost environment relative to larger regional metros, Jackson’s industrial market supports both occupier expansion and investor interest.
